Money in Politics.

Horace Greeley in one of his Pennsylvania speeches denounced the use of money at elections, and insulted the people of North Carolina and Maine by the assertion that they were bought up. In 1868 Horace Greeley was a member of the Republican National Committee. He then offered a resolution that not less than $430,000 should be raised for election purpose, and assigned the quota of contributions to be made to each of eight States. And now he prates about the use of money at elections! There are prevalent upon this subject the most mistaken and exaggerated notions. Money is undoubtedly raised and used for election purposes by all parties. Meetings cannot be held, torch-light processions got up, banners raised or canvasses made without money. Halls must be hired, platforms built, printing and advertising bills paid, and the expenses of speakers paid. In some cases the speakers themselves require to be paid liberally. This was the case with Carl Schurz in 1868, and we presume is so now. But the amounts raised are greatly exaggerated by the party Press and common opinion. Thus, though Mr. Greeley called, in 1868, for $430,000, the sum actually raised did not amount to $150,000. During the present campaign money is also being raised by both parties, but we venture to assert that neither party has sent to any of the States in which elections have taken place anything like the amount of money which has been reported. We also believe that the Greeleyites sent twice as much money to North Carolina and Maine the present year as did the Republicans.

The Greeleyites are so hard up for money that they are promising offices as an inducement to people to subscribe. This is very much like the bonds of the Southern Confederacy, payable thirty days after the recognition of its independence.

Another Tidal Wave.

The Chappaquacks are making a great ado about another tidal wave that they have recently discovered. There was something of a tidal disturbance in North Carolina prior to the August election, but the most remarkable phenomenon of this character, it will be remembered, arose in Maine a few weeks later. It rolled and roared and reverberated over that State as if all the waters of its numerous bays had broke loose and were flooding the highest peaks of Mount Katahdin. Judging from the reports that filled the Greeley organs about that time, it was thought not improbable that the 3d of September would prove a field day for Liberals and Copperheads, and that the Grant party would be wiped out, for if Grant could not carry Maine, what State subject to tidal influences could he be expected to carry? As the matter turned out, finally, the confederates only lacked 17,000 votes, in an aggregate of 127,000, of sweeping the State and rendering tidal waves fearful things to contemplate.

Now another tidal wave, according to the veracious combination organs, is commencing to swell, and to buoy up the hopes of those sanguine party leaders who continue to put their faith in prognostics that as continually fail them. This third wave has located itself in Ohio. The Chaps are all agog with its surging and foaming, and the morning dispatch and evening telegram are rife with startling accounts of the great commotion which prevails in that State—all brought about by the refusal of the Republicans to buy up a German newspaper, at Cincinnati, for $30,000, whereby the German voters of the State have become so incensed as to desert the Grant flag in a body, and have gone over to the Chappaquack Wood-chopper 30,000 strong. This is the Greeleyite explanation of the matter, but we need hardly say that we put little faith in mere rumors of this sort, and that our confidence in the fidelity and patriotism of Ohio remains without a jot of abatement. One reason for this abiding sense of security in Ohio is found in the fact that no tidal disturbance is reported from Pennsylvania, where it might have been located with a better chance of being received with credulity. As the case stands, we can afford to wait patiently till the second Tuesday in October, when the illusion will be dispelled, and a majority of 20,000 or 25,000 will add another voice to the nation's verdict in advance, that Grant, the conqueror of the rebellion, is still the people's favorite.

The Seventh New-Jersey District Republican Congressional Convention.

The Hudson County Republican Congressional and County Convention met yesterday afternoon at Cooper Hall, Jersey City. The Convention was called to order by John Reid, the Chairman of the County Executive Committee, and Hon. Wm. T. Hoffman, of Hoboken, was chosen permanent Chairman, and Messrs. Newbold and See Secretaries. The report of the Committee on Credentials was read and accepted, and a motion was made to enter into nomination for Congressman. Hon. D. S. Gregory, Jr., of the First Assembly District, presented the name of Hon. I. W. Scudder, which was accepted with acclamation. Nominations were then made for Sheriff, and Mr. William Van Keuren was unanimously chosen on the first ballot. Six names were then presented as Coroners, and Dr. Morgan, F. H. Shafer and Patrick McDonald were nominated. The usual resolutions were passed, and after appointing a County Executive Committee for the ensuing year, the Convention adjourned.

The Slander on the People of Maine.

The people of Maine naturally resent with indignation Greeley's assertion, reiterated in the Tribune, that they were bribed in the recent election. The Portland Press says: "It is disgraceful and degrading for a man who is eminent enough to be a prominent candidate for the Presidency to repeat for political effect such sweeping charges, of whose falsity he must be fully conscious. He evidently relies upon the distance of his auditors from the place thus villified, and their consequent want of familiarity with the character of the people maligned. He makes his accusations unscrupulously, knowing that the large body of his hearers will never see the refutation of them. This is a style of warfare much favored by Liberal orators and journals, and Mr. Greeley's utter degradation and loss of personal integrity are demonstrated by his adoption of the low partisan tactics of his motley followers."

The Two Speech-Makers.

When Greeley was exerting himself in the vain effort to advance what he called "my cause" in Ohio, the Toledo Commercial alluded to his stumping tour, and said: "Gen. Grant is no speech-maker, and never pretended to be one. He is a man of deeds, not of words. Though he never attempted to make a public speech in his life, he has never failed to make himself understood, when it was necessary. When Horace Greeley was demanding for the rebels the 'right of secession,' and thus justifying their efforts to defend and enforce that 'right,' Gen. Grant was furnishing 'specimen bricks' of another sort of talk to the same rebels. Those were 'noble speeches' he addressed to Buckner at Donelson—'Unconditional surrender,' 'I shall immediately move on your works,' &c. So, too, at Vicksburg, Richmond and Appomattox, he acquitted himself very creditably. To be sure, his 'speeches' were not as long as Greeley's begging appeals now are, nor even as that gentleman's addresses to Sanders and the other rebel emissaries at Niagara Falls, but they were fully as effective."

William F. Havemeyer Nominated for Mayor by the Reform Association.

A meeting of the various Municipal Reform Associations was held last evening, at the Fifth-avenue Hotel, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Mayoralty. The following organizations were represented: The Reform Association, the Working Men's Central Union, the German Reform Association, the Municipal Reform Association, and some other minor reform organizations. Mr. John Foley presided, and Mr. Hennessey, from the Working Men's Central Union, acted as Secretary.

Mr. Freeborn moved to proceed to nominate candidates.

Mr. Henry Clausen, one of the representatives of the German Reform Association, said that his delegation were not authorized to make nominations. They were simply there to confer and hear suggestions as to suitable candidates. If nominations were made he could take no part in the proceedings, and the deledation would withdraw.

Mr. John Foley, Mr. Cooper, and other delegates urged the necessity of prompt action and suggested the name of William F. Havemeyer as a candidate who would be certain to be elected. Mr. Foley stated that a prominent Tammany man had offered $50,000 for the Reform nomination.

Mr. J. W. Gerard, Jr., said that he had ascertained from the President of the Council of Political Reform that Mr. Havemeyer would command the support of that organization.

Mr. Kohler, of the German delegation, was utterly opposed to acting precipitately in the matter of making nominations. He believed there were hundreds of men in the City who would prove stronger candidates than Mr. Havemeyer, and thought that to nominate him would be to supply ammunition to O'Brien. One thing was certain; in his opinion, that O'Brien would be elected, if more than one candidate should be running against him. It, therefore, behooved this organization not to be hasty in making nominations, and to act in concert with other political organizations.

Mr. Uhl, of the Staats Zeitung, said that in case nominations were made his delegation would withdraw.

Notwithstanding the objections of the German delegation, it was voted to proceed with the nominations, and accordingly Mr. Uhl and his fellow-delegates withdrew.

The work of nomination was then proceeded with, and upon motion of Mr. Freeborn, seconded by Mr. Cooper, Mr. William F. Havemeyer was nominated for Mayor by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Foley stated that he had obtained from Mr. Charles O'Conor, Mr. John E. Develin, Mr. Jonathan Sturges and other eminent citizens, the right to use their names on the Committee.

Upon motion a Committee on Address and Resolutions was appointed.

The following committee was then appointed to present the nomination to Mr. Havemeyer: Charles O'Conor, A. T. Stewart, Jackson S. Schultz, George Jones, Benjamin B. Sherman, W. R. Vermilye, William L. Jenkins, F. D. Tappen, Joseph H. Choate, Henry Clews, Emil Sauer, Isaac H. Bailey, William E. Dodge and a number of other distinguished citizens.

Brief addresses were made by Messrs. John Foley, J. W. Gerard, and others, eulogizing Mr. Havemeyer and predicting his election by a sweeping majority. The matter of making nominations for City Judge and other County offices was deferred to a future meeting.

The People's Municipal Reform Association—Smith E. Shaw Accepts the Nomination for Mayor.

A well-attended meeting of the People's Municipal Reform Association was held, last evening, at No. 907 Broadway, Geo. A. Halsey presiding. At the last meeting of the Association Smith E. Shaw was unanimously nominated for Mayor. The Chairman of the Committee reported that the nomination had been accepted. The announcement was received with applause, after which Mr. Halsey, in an able address, reviewed the whole reform movement, and expressed his assurance that the nominees of the People's Municipal Reform Association would be successful in the coming election. Mr. Smith E. Shaw, in a few words, thanked the Association, and promised that in a few days he would issue through the Press a long address to the people of New-York. Addresses were also made by Messrs. Haverstock and Cornwall.

Nominations for Congress in Georgia.

Gov. Smith, of Georgia, has appointed Tuesday, Oct. 29, for an election in the Fourth District of that State, to fill the vacancy in the representation in the Forty-second Congress, caused by the death of Hon. Thomas J. Spier, Republican. The Republicans have nominated Judge James S. Greene for the position. The Democrats have not yet named their candidate. Both parties in Georgia have completed their nominations for members of the next Congress, and they are as follows:

Dist.	Republican.	Democratic.
1.	Andrew M. Sloan.	Morgan Rawls.
2.	Richard M. Whiteley.	Gilbert J. Wright.
3.	Sampson Bell.	Philip Cooke.
4.	John S. Bigby.	Henry R. Harris.
5.	James C. Freeman.	L. J. Glenn.
6.	Lemuel B. Anderson.	James H. Blount.
7.	James F. Dever.	P. M. P. Young.
8.	Philip Clayton.	A. R. Wright.

Removals in the Custom-House.

The Sun of yesterday published a statement that "Mr. D. W. Thompson, an official having held a position in the Custom-house for the past five years, had been removed, because he is a son-in-law of P. T. Barnum, as the latter is a Greeley man, and that Mr. Thompson had paid the assessment levied upon him for political purposes a fortnight since."

Gen. Arthur, on being questioned on the subject by a TIMES reporter, stated that Mr. Thompson was removed for good and satisfactory reasons, but as regards the levying of assessments for political purposes, the Collector wants it distinctly understood that not a single individual has been asked to contribute anything toward the political campaign, and whatever moneys are paid come voluntarily. In this, as well as in respect to appointments, the provisions of the Civil Service law are strictly adhered to.

In regard to the removal of Mr. H. Mershon, an inspector, the same reasons as above may be applied. His displacement was made for good cause.

The Pennsylvania Eleventh District.

The name of the Republican candidate for Congress in the Eleventh District of Pennsylvania is A. B. Howell, not D. C. Howell, as printed the other day. Major Howell is a gallant and meritorious soldier, who served during almost the entire war of the rebellion, and lost a leg in defending the Union. He is one of the ablest speakers in Pennsylvania, and universally popular in his district, and we are assured will make a stronger run than would be possible for any other Republican within its limits.

Disgusted With Greeley.

A meeting of young men residing in the Tenth Assembly District took place last evening at No. 89 First-avenue, for the purpose of reorganization. They formerly composed a Greeley and Brown Club, but becoming disgusted with the Tammany candidates at the last meeting, they declared for Grant and Wilson. The organization will be now known as the Young Men's Grant and Wilson Campaign Club of the Tenth Assembly District. The following officers were elected last evening: President, Mr. John Graham; Vice-President, Mr. Matthew Brady; Second Vice-President, Mr. Edward Rapp; Secretary, Mr. John Carey; Recording Secretary, Mr. Wm. These delegates leave to-night by steamer for Albany, and it is reported that this delegation will oppose any action on the part of the Convention except the indorsement of a platform and the nomination of an electoral ticket, not desiring any separate State ticket.

Twenty-First Ward Young Men's Municipal Reform Association.

The first meeting of the members of this Association for this season was held last evening at Glass Hall, in Thirty-fourth-street, to organize for the present political campaign. Mr. E. Elery Anderson was elected President, Mr. James Denny, Jr., Vice-President, Thomas Sloane Treasurer, and Henry J. Worth Secretary. A committee was appointed to confer with other organizations with reference to the nomination of candidates for local Ward offices, including that of Assemblyman. Some routine business was transacted, and the meeting adjourned.

Partial Rejection of Tammany's List of Election Supervisors.

After the adjournment of the Circuit Court, yesterday, the list of applicants for appointment as deputy supervisors of election was taken before Judge Woodruff, in Chambers, for revision. The list was scrutinized from the First to the Fifteenth Assembly District, and about 100 persons representing Tammany Hall were rejected as being unqualified to serve. The names of other applicants were substituted in their places by Ex-Judge Spencer. Among the reasons named for the rejection of the Tammany men, were incapacity, moral unfitness, and inability to read and write the English language. One applicant was thrown out because he was a gambler and had given a Broadway gambling-house as his place of residence. Another applicant, living in the Nineteenth Ward, was also declared unfit on the ground that his general character was bad, and one from the Eighth Ward was proven to be a repeater. Some of the names from the Eighth Ward were found to be those of thieves and blacklegs, and their rejection was a sore blow to Mike Norton, who counted on their aid to help elect him to the Assembly. After the work of revision had been completed, Judge Woodruff signed a large number of blank commissions of supervisors. The names will be filled in as soon as the appointments are made.

Tammany Trick to Embarrass Republican Inspectors.

The latest piece of political knavery concocted by Tammany is the issuing of jury subpœnas to active Republicans who are expected to serve as inspectors or supervisors, or take some other influential part in the election. The subpœnas are supposed to emanate from the Sheriff, and call for the attendance of those who receive them as jurymen in some one or another of the State or City Courts during November. The notices announce heavy penalties for non-compliance with requirements printed on them. It is believed that they have been issued to frighten the active Republicans who get them into forsaking their political duties. In one of the up-town districts the summons appear to have been served almost entirely on well-known Republican workers.

Brooklyn Politics.

The Tenth Ward Grant and Wilson Club had a grand demonstration, last night, at their rooms, No. 275 Atlantic-street. The Tanners' Club, in connection with it, turned out over two hundred men in uniform. Capt. Rowan warmly defended the Administration, and wanted to know if the 50,000 men whose bones manure the fields of the South died that this Government should pass into the hands of traitors again. Other speakers followed.

The Tanners' Associations of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth Wards, turned out last night in strong force, with music and flaming torches. There were over 1,500 men in the procession. A stand was erected at the corner of Clymer and Bedford avenues, where they were addressed by Major Pangborn, of New-Jersey. After the meeting they marched through the streets of Williamsburg and were everywhere greeted with enthusiastic cheers.

The Republican General Committee of Kings County met last night, Silas B. Dutcher, presiding. The Committee fixed the primaries for Oct. 16; the Congressional Convention, Oct. 17; City and County Conventions, Oct. 18, and the Assembly Conventions, Oct. 19. Arrangements were also made for the great mass-meeting to be addressed by Senator Roscoe Conkling at the Academy of Music, Friday evening.

How Tammany Mass-Meetings are Managed.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

Allow me a space in your valuable journal to show you how Tammany mass-meetings are swelled in Yorkville. As a laborer on the big pipes on Tenth-avenue, we received on the 28th orders from the general foreman, Mr. John Noe, that he wanted a gang of 300 or more to go over to indorse Dick Croker for Coroner. Now, Mr. Editor, a refusal of any poor laboring man to go there would be instant dismissal, all for the sake of furthering the interest of those politicians in whose doctrine we do not believe in. By inserting this in your valuable journal, you will oblige

SIX HUNDRED BIG-PIPE MEN.

The Coach-Drivers' Strike.

The coach-drivers of New-York, who went on strike yesterday, met last night at Constitution Hall, Twenty-second-street and Third-avenue, for the purpose of receiving the reports of the visiting committee who had waited upon the bosses still holding out. Hugh Tolan presided. About one hundred coach-drivers were present. The Secretary, Daniel Flynn, urged upon the men the necessity of being united and firm in their efforts to obtain the increased demand of wages, and said it was an imposition upon the coach-drivers of New-York to be working fifteen and twenty hours out of the twenty-four and only receive the sum of $12 per week. If, he argued, the men would remain firm and steady in their demands the bosses would be forced to comply. None of the standing-out houses have yet given in since the names of those already published. The following are the names of the principal stable-owners who resist the demands of the men: Messrs. Wilson, Twelfth-street; Mirrian, Eighth-street; Norris, Eighth-street; Quinn, Twenty-fifth-street; Drinnen, Thirty-sixth-street; Quinn, Eighth-avenue; Crennan, Thirty-sixth-street; Brown, Thirteenth-street; Murray, Thirteenth street, and Underhill, Lafayette-place, and a number of smaller stables employing fewer men.

OHIO AROUSED.

Great Republican Demonstration in Cleveland Yesterday—Mr. Blaine Pays His Attention to Greeley's and the Tribune's Slanders.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 1.—The Republicans in Northern Ohio are aroused. The demonstration of today will beget all the energy necessary to bring out the full vote of the splendid Republican counties of the Western Reserve, which done, Ohio stands, as firmly as ever in the ranks of the loyal States. The time for preparation was limited, yet the success of the affair in all its details, despite unpropitious weather, has has been beyond the most sanguine hopes.

The early trains from all the surrounding counties brought thousands upon thousands into the city at an early hour to witness the day parade of the trades and working men. The city was decorated as for a holiday, buildings were resplendent with flags, mottoes and streamers. Shortly before 12 o'clock the procession began to move. The head was composed of two war-worn batteries of artillery, both men and guns being those who had graduated from war to peace, and who now preserve the liberties of the country as a reserve in the ranks of the loyal militia. Then came in endless detail, a grand represention of the power of the Republican Party with the people, 250 wagons, occupying over an hour in passing Bank-street, filled with living, working representatives of Cleveland's great industries. Nearly every wagon was a workshop on wheels, and comprised every branch of trade from the confectioner and baker to the sewing-machines and printing-press. Some of the details were on a magnificent scale and wonderful in conception. The business men and manufactories seemed to vie with each other in adding to the effect of the parade. Tens of thousands gathered on the streets to see it pass, and had Horace Greeley witnessed its familiar composition he would have forgotten himself and his new affiliations and shouted with his old friends. It is impossible here to enter into the details of this procession, but it comprised everything that is making Cleveland proud, prosperous and happy. A great boot and shoe manufactory had a dozen platform-wagons filled with operatives and sewing-machines in the actual manufacture of boots and shoes; boiler-makers, tinmen, gas-fitters and plumbers, carpenters, joiners, stair-builders and masons, hammered away. A conspicuous feature was a tanner's and currier's shop, with several operatives vigorously currying sides under the following suggestive notice: "New-York Tribunes furnished in exchange for Greeley hides." That is precisely what the Western Reserve subscribers to the Tribune would like to do.

As a single illustration of the extent and spirit of this affair, let me give an illustration: An oil company, employing 1,200 men, shut up their works, gave their men a holiday at full pay, and furnished twenty large wagons to represent every department of their extensive business in active operation. This could not have been done at an expense of less than $3,000 to this single concern.

When the procession halted, several thousand people assembled in the public square to hear Senator Wilson, Speaker Blaine, Gen. Garfield, Congressman Upson and Col. Parsons, who were the orators. Mr. Wilson spoke an hour and a half, during most of which time a drenching rain fell, but the crowd, with wonderful pertinacity, stood firm, determined not to yield. They were in the best of humor, and showed by their persistency and applause that the speaker was producing an excellent effect. When Senator Wilson concluded the rain continuing to fall, the meeting was adjourned to the Central Rink, a monstrous building holding upward of 4,000 people, which was speedily filled. Gen. Garfield here made a magnificent speech, one of the most powerful he has yet delivered, and was followed by Col. Parsons, who was received with tumultuous applause.

The night demonstration has fitly supplemented that of the day, with illuminations and fire-works. The streets were a moving mass of men and torches, and the air was filled with the music of scores of bands. Four thousand Wide-awakes and Tanners, in uniform, were in the streets forming for the last display at the public square, while two immense meetings were held in the Rink, and another in the square at the Rink. Hon. W. H. Upson, the present Representative of this district, spoke to an audience of 3,000 people.

Speaker Blaine, in a speech of over an hour, which was received with great applause, reviewed Horace Greeley's political record, especially as illustrated by his recent speeches, and in closing referred briefly to the last infamous assault of the New-York Tribune upon himself. [Mr. Blaine's remarks on this subject will be found on another page.]

At the meeting in the square several thousand more people listened, despite the blustering state of the weather, which every now and then was varied with a sharp dash of rain. Speeches were made by Hon. John P. Southworth, of Alabama, and W. S. Faray, Esq., of Ohio. At this hour (11 o'clock) 20,000 people are still in the streets, and the city is a blaze of light from the torches, illumination, and fire-works.

Republican Convention at Lowell—Ex-Attorney-General Hoar Nominated for Congress.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

LOWELL, Mass., Oct. 1.—The Republican Convention for the nomination of a candidate for Congress in the new Seventh Congressional District was held here today. The interest was great in its proceedings on account of the warm contest in the caucuses between the friends of Ex-Attorney-General Hoar and Dr. J. G. Ayer, and consequently full delegations were present from every town and city in the district, and a large crowd of interested spectators. A canvass before the opening of the Convention showed that there was a probable majority, though small, for Judge Hoar. His friends secured the organization by the election of Hon. Daniel Needham, of Groton, to the chair.

The result of the ballot was as follows: Whole number of votes, 108; necessary for a choice, 55; Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, 49; E. R. Hoar, of Concord, 59. Judge Hoar was therefore declared the nominee, and the announcement was received with the heartiest applause. Several who voted for Dr. Ayer joining in, demonstrates that which has been asserted, that many of the opponents of the late Attorney-General in the Convention were only opponents because pledged by their caucuses to vote for Dr. Ayer before it was known Mr. Hoar would be a candidate. Hon. John C. Hardley, of Laurence, who was early in the campaign as prominent for the Congressional nomination, was elected candidate for Presidential Elector by acclamation. Dr. Ayer, hoping to be elected, had prepared a collation for his friends and supporting voters near by the hall. Notwithstanding his defeat, the entertainment was given, and it is said many more than the number who voted for him were present.

A convention of delegates from the Republicans of the old Seventh District, to nominate a candidate for the unexpired term of Hon. Geo. M. Brooks, of Concord, who resigned to take a seat on the Bench, was held after the adjournment of the other Convention. The contest was between the friends of Hon. Thos. Rice, of Newton, and Hon. C. C. Esty, of Framingham. The latter was successful, Mr. Esty receiving sixty votes, against twenty-three for Mr. Rice. The term ends on the 4th of March next.

Greeleyite Nominations in the Eighth District.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

BOSTON, Oct. 1.—The Democrats and soreheads of the new Eighth Congressional District, in which the Republicans have nominated Hon. J. M. S. Williams, held conventions in Cambridge today, in neighboring halls, to nominate a coalition candidate. After a long and confusing wrangle, and after many conferences of Conference Committees, the two fused, and a union committee nominated Hon. Wm. W. Warren, of Brighton, for Congress, and Gen. William Schouler, of West Roxbury, as Elector. Mr. Warren is a Democrat and Mr. Schouler, a renegade Republican. The Soreheads labored long for the nomination of one of their number for Congress—Mr. Henry W. Muzzey, of Cambridge—but the Democrats were firm for their man. Mr. Warren is a lawyer, and personally a popular man in his district. He has served prominently in the State Legislature, and was last year candidate for Attorney-General on the Democratic State ticket. He will poll as large a vote as any man the Democrats could have nominated, but he will probably poll no Republican vote of any account. The election of Mr. Williams, the Republican candidate is a certainty.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Great Republican Gathering at Carlisle, Cumberland County—Democrats Supporting the Whole Republican Ticket.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

HARRISBURG, Penn., Oct. 1.—A mass-meeting of Republicans was held at Carlisle, in Cumberland County, eighteen miles from this city, to-night, which was addressed by Gen. Albright, one of the candidates for Congress at large, on the Republican State ticket, and others. About a dozen cars went down from this city, returning at midnight, and a large delegation came from the surrounding towns. There is renewed energy in the canvass this week on both sides, but thus far there are no reports of any new accessions to the Sorehead-Democratic coalition. George W. Brewer, a prominent Democrat of Chambersburg, has publicly come out for the whole Republican ticket, and has, it is said, taken many of his friends with him.

CONNECTICUT.

Complete Disruption of the Democratic Party in New-Haven—A Large Grant and Wilson Club Formed on the Debris.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

NEW-HAVEN, Conn. Oct. 1.—The Democratic City Convention this evening was broken up in the greatest confusion, and the party has gone to pieces. James Gallagher got himself appointed Chairman, though the Convention protested. He has been trying to get the nomination for Mayor, while Lewis, the present incumbent is urged by the citizens of all parties, on account of his system of public improvement. Lewis had, however, a majority of delegates in the Convention, and when Gallagher, who is Chairman of the Town Committee, found that out he broke up the Convention by appealing to a crowd of outsiders to nominate James E. English by acclamation. The Lewis men withdrew, and the Convention broke up without nominating any other officers.

There was the wildest confusion, and a Democratic Club which will support Grant and Wilson has grown out of the defection, and now numbers 438 names.

Mr. Lewis will be nominated on a citizens' ticket, irrespective of party, and elected.

GIBSON AND SCHWABB.

Another Falsehood Nailed—Secretary Delano and the Cincinnati Defaulters.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1.—On Saturday last the Tribune printed a communication from this city, in which it was charged that Mr. Delano, when Commissioner of Internal Revenue, failed to prosecute David Gibson and Peter Schwabb, of Cincinnati, for an alleged violation of the Revenue laws, and that finally, in 1869, when a compromise in the case was effected, by which it was agreed that $60,000 should be paid to the Government, Mr. Delano so far neglected his duties as not to enforce the payment of that amount. The Tribune indorsed these statements editorially, and declared that the $60,000 has never been paid. In its issue of today it again returned to the charge, and indorsed all that it said on Saturday. The following letter from the United States District-Attorney for the Southern District of Ohio, written to Mr. Delano in 1870, and which is now on file in the Department here, conclusively shows the falsity of the Tribune's slanders. The $60,000 was, it will be seen, paid two years ago, and in the opinion of the law officers of the Government the compromise was a good one:

OFFICE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY,
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO,
CINCINNATI, Sept. 10, 1870.

Hon. C. Delano, Commissioner Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C.:

SIR: I have the honor to report to you finally the performance, by David Gibson, of the conditions of the compromise made with him by the Government, according to the terms of your letters to me of the 9th day of June and the 15th day of July last. He paid the $60,000 into Court, according to the direction of your letter of the 15th of July, and the same was distributed, as you will see by the entries in the case of United States against J. W. Cheesman and others, and the amount payable to the Government paid forthwith to Lewis Weitzel, Collector of the First District. The $1,800 cash consisted of the two per cent. commissions due me, and one per cent. commissions to which the clerk is entitled—the other cash having been paid by Gibson. Inclosed I send you copies of the entries made on the cases and the cost bills paid by Gibson. I think the compromise has been an advantageous one to the Government.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
(Signed,) WARREN M. BATEMAN,
United States Attorney, S. E. O.

It will be recollected that last August the Democratic Congressional Committee issued a pamphlet on the subject of the finances, in which it was attempted to prove from official documents that the statements of the public debt issued by the Treasury Department contradicted one another and could not be depended upon. Hon. John Coburn, of Indiana, called the attention of the Department to this document a short time ago, inasmuch as it is being used as an electioneering document. In reply to his communication, Hon. Wm. A. Richardson has written a letter, in which he exposes the unfair and untruthful character of the document in question. Mr. Richardson explains the different statements of the public debt issued from time to time by the Department, as follows:

The first statements may be summarized in the following manner: The first is an exhibit of the amount of the principal of the United States securities and Pacific Railroad bonds issued under various acts of Congress, outstanding June 30, 1872; the second is a statement of the principal of the outstanding debt, including the accrued interest thereon with the Pacific Railroad bonds excluded. The third shows the outstanding principal of this debt, with the Sinking Fund deducted, in accordance with the act of Congress of July 14, 1870, and exclusive of the Pacific Railroad bonds. The fourth is a statement of the net debt of the United States, principal and accrued interest, with the cash in the Treasury deducted.

The publication of these statements by this Department was in accordance with law, and while, as has been shown, they differ materially only in the data upon which they are based, they afford an opportunity to persons of dishonest motives to ignore that fact, and present them to the public as conflicting and untruthful statements made up from the same data.

Mr. Richardson closes his letter as follows: All the statements of the public debt have heretofore been made from the loan accounts, independent of the registers, receipts and expenditures, and, therefore, they have never been affected in any way by the differences alluded to. It is by the monthly debt statement, which is the balance sheet of the public debt ledger, and into which enters the principal of the debt, the accrued interest thereon and interest unpaid, and the cash in the Treasury, that the debt of the United States, and the reduction thereof, has been shown by the present Administration, and this is the only statement of the public debt which embraces all the data upon which it is believed, showing both the assets and liabilities of the Government. An examination of these statements will show the care and accuracy with which they have been prepared, and that they are free from all errors, and as reliable as the science of accounts can make them.

A Boy Killed on the Railroad.

Abraham Lincolnvetter, aged eleven, residing in East Twenty-fifth-street, yesterday jumped off a truck at the corner of Twenty-fifth-street and Second-avenue. In doing so he slipped and fell almost under the wheels of a street-car. One wheel caught in his jacket and dragged him some distance. The car was stopped, and when the boy was extricated a slight flesh-wound over the heart was the only visible contusion. In less than half a minute he was dead. The conductor and driver of the car were arrested. The coroner was notified.

TAMMANY VS. APOLLO HALL.

The Supervisors of Election—Argument on the Relative Importance of Tammany and Apollo Hall—Judge Woodruff Virtually Decides in Favor of Tammany—The Supervisors to be Probably Chosen Today.

Judge Woodruff held court in the United States Circuit Court-room yesterday for the purpose of hearing the arguments between the Tammany Hall Democracy, (represented by Hon. Samuel J. Tilden and ex-Judge Spencer, of the Superior Court,) and the Apollo Hall Reformers, (in whose behalf appeared Mr. William C. Barrett and Mr. Peter Mitchell,) as to which organization shall have the right of choosing Supervisors in the election districts of the City at the November election, the law allowing only two in each district, of whom one is to be designated by the Republicans. The court-room was even more crowded than on the day before with local politicians and others, but the few notable ones were those who were present on Monday.

After the formal opening of Court, Mr. William C. Barrett rose to open the argument by saying that he had heard that there were objections to a great many of the names submitted by Tammany Hall, but none to the list of Apollo Hall. The great point he desired to lay before the Court was the fact that the Apollo Hall organization represents the Democracy of the City of New-York. To satisfy the Court of the truth of this he need only refer to the two gentlemen before him, Judge Spencer and Samuel J. Tilden, representing Tammany Hall. In January last Judge Spencer was nominated to a high judicial position, to which he was well fitted, by Tammany, but was defeated by 25,000 votes by the Apollo Hall candidate. Mr. Tilden, at that time a violent opponent of Tammany Hall, was elected by 6,000 majority through the instrumentality of Apollo Hall. He asked if anything stronger could be shown to illustrate that Apollo Hall is the true Democracy. Mr. Andrews could not deny that there are 43,000 votes in the Apollo Hall Party, while Tammany is disorganized, and has fewer supporters. There is no reason the Court should select that organization in preference to Apollo Hall, especially as it has selected for its Presidential candidate a man who has always been the enemy of Democrats. Tammany Hall is a bastard Democracy, and has abandoned its principles.

Ex-Judge Spencer, replying for Tammany, said that he did not wish to talk about "halls," and he regretted that Commissioner Davenport had used that word instead of the Democracy. The question rises far above local considerations; their position is the position of one of the great national parties, while Apollo Hall is a mere faction. The act says that the Judge must appoint men of different political parties, and the act has reference to national interests, and is to guard and protect the ballot-box. There are only two great national parties, of which Tammany Hall, representing the Democratic Party, is one, and the Republican Party the other, was the gist of the speaker's argument. He said it is absurd to attribute to Apollo Hall the results of the great reform movement, in which such men as O'Conor, Tilden and Schell had combined with outside influences to sweep objectionable men from power and appoint the men who are now in Tammany Hall, and who represent that great reform. The speaker attributed his own defeat at the polls to the fact that reformers make no distinctions, and he was swept away in the great tidal wave.

Mr. Barrett asked Mr. Spencer to name the reformers in Tammany Hall, when Judge Woodruff interposed to say that he was not there to listen to arguments about names.

Mr. Mitchell asked the right to say a few words for Apollo Hall, referring to the great majority against Tammany last Fall, by which Judge Barrett, the Apollo Hall candidate for the Supreme Court, was elected by 43,000 majority, while a reference will show that the Republican majorities, except at Grant's election, were 35,000 to 38,000. Tammany adopted no platform at Baltimore, but nominated the Liberal Republic candidate and ask Democrats to support him. At Rochester, however, a straight candidate has been named for Governor, in Francis Kernan, and all Democrats will support him. Tammany is unchanged; they changed a few ministers, but the same gang can be seen at the General Committee. Apollo Hall asks for representation as Democrats.

Ex-Judge Spencer expressed himself glad that Apollo Hall will support Kernan, but was informed that they dare not call a meeting of the General Committee, lest it declare for Greeley and Brown. Commissioner Davenport then read a list of the names to which he had received objections, some on account of character and some on account of inability to read or write.

Judge Woodruff, stating that he would examine all the objections carefully, gave the following opinion:

The law is framed and passed principally with the view to the interests of the nation at large. Incidentally that involves to a large degree the interests of the several States. The law finds its foundation, also, primarily in a provision of the national Constitution, which gives to the Congress of the United States power, within certain limits, over the conduct of the election of the representatives to the Congress of the United States, who, as legislators, are charged with national interests. The Congress of the United States has seen fit to employ the term "political parties," which is generally susceptible of application to every set of men, whether greater or less in number, who entertain diverse views concerning the political interests of the nation, State or city. There is a presumption, founded on the constitutional provision on which the law rests, found in the fact that the law is an emanation from the national Legislature, and found in the fact that that law relates especially to elections at which members to the National Assembly are to be chosen. Say there is a presumption that Congress, in using the term "political parties," did not mean that it should be satisfied by the selection from every subdivision or fraction—to use the language of the day, "split,"—among the larger and more comprehensive political parties who are involved in the questions which arises on the recurrence of any election day; and if it were suggested that the friends of any candidate for office in the State or in the cities answer that definition, I apprehend that interpretation of the law would be rejected by all intelligent minds. On the other hand, the Court, in executing such a law, cannot be expected to inquire of every applicant for supervisorship for whom he intends to vote. If that test were to be applied to State politics the inquiry would then arise, and run into an extreme which would make it impossible to comply with the provisions of the law. Shall it be, "For whom do you intend to vote" for Governor? Shall it be, "For whom do you intend to vote" for some other subordinate office? Shall it be, "For whom do you intend to vote for county officer?" or the question might be extended through all the range of candidates. The observations which have been submitted to the Court today illustrate the impropriety of the Court entering into a discussion of these subdivisions. It is stated in behalf of a portion of the Democratic Party, which has been styled here in the discussion, "the Apollo Hall Democracy," that they are the supporters of Mr. Kernan for Governor. It is stated on the other hand, in behalf of those who come recommended by the National, State and County Committees, that Mr. Kernan is put in nomination by them. The Court then went on to state that he could listen to any argument as to the distinction between Tammany Hall and Apollo Hall Democrats. The law is satisfied, he said, by a selection from either. But I apprehend that that is not the test; that it is a test that would be impracticable of application, and that the meaning of the law was that the Court should be advised of the great contest that is going on in the State at large for persons who are to have the Administration of the National Government. If these were clearly defined lines that could be presented to the Court in a form in which we could recognize them, there would be obvious reasons for selecting for supervisors the party that was to support, on the one hand, supporters of what may be termed the Administration of the United States, and on the other, those that are opposed to the Administration; not because they are supporters of the Administration, because the case might well be in which the candidates on either hand were new men, but there would be no propriety in referring to names. There is no propriety in referring to names, except to ascertain where the lines are drawn between the great political parties in the country, whether two or more. Now, without going further, I have no hesitation in saying that these considerations should govern the Court in making its selections, and that it would not be wise or proper to go down from national into local matters which separate men of the like political faith who happen to differ in respect to candidates, who are to be brought forward at the coming election of officers, with the choice of whom Congress has not yet heretofore seen fit to interfere, and in the election of whom, it may be made a grave question whether Congress has any power to interfere."

The Court adjourned to this morning, when the appointments will probably be made.

Second-Avenue Railroad Extension—Meeting of the Commissioners.

Last Winter the Second-avenue Railroad Company of this City petitioned the Legislature to grant them the right to run their track through certain additional streets and avenues, especially the Third and Fourth avenues, down Astor-place to Broadway, and thence through Worth-street, the new franchise asked for being of more value to the Company than those they previously held. The additional grant was given with the proviso that the Company should pay to the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the City of New-York the value of the rights and privileges granted by said act—payment to be made by an annual sum, or by one gross sum, the amount to be fixed by the Commissioners appointed by the Supreme Court. The Commissioners, Messrs. Wm. R. Martin, Nelson J. Tappen and Rufus M. Stivers, met yesterday at the office of George H. Purser, No. 82 Nassau-street, where most of the street-opening business has been managed for the last ten years. Mr. R. O'Gorman appeared on behalf of the City, Ex-Judge Storrm for the Railroad Company, and Mr. Dexter A. Hawkins for the tax-payers.

The object of the meeting having been explained, Mr. Slosson said he supposed that under the terms of the law the Railroad Company should pay something to the City, and he proposed to pay the round sum of $1, though in reality the citizens of New-York, and the Company, were the gainers by having the additional tracks laid.

Mr. Hawkins suggested that the Company pay a quarter of a cent per passenger, and if the traffic on the road was great the revenue to the City and the Company would be considerable.

This suggestion was very disagreeable to the counsel for the Railroad Company, who objected to Mr. Hawkins being heard. The Corporation Counsel did not object to his presence and the Commissioners acceded to it. The meeting adjourned to Wednesday next at 12 o'clock.

MUNICIPAL REFORM.

Meeting of the Executive Committee of the People's Municipal Reform Association.

A full meeting of the People's Executive Committee of Municipal Reform, which was appointed at the mass-meeting held at Cooper Union on Sept. 23, was held yesterday to organize and initiate its work. The following organization was effected:

President—Hon. James Emmott.

Vice-Presidents—Hon. W. E. Dodge, Hon. Oswald Ottendorfer.

Treasurer—Philip Bissinger.

Secretary—H. N. Beers.

Sub-executive Committee—James Emmott, Oswald Ottendorfer, W. H. Neilson, Edward Salomon, Dorman B. Eaton, John Wheeler, John E. Parsons, E. Randolph Robinson, Henry J. Scudder, H. N. Burr, Julius W. Tieman, E. Brackowitzer, M. D.; John R. Voorhis, R. G. Cornell, Robert Hoe, Thos. C. Acton, Jos. C. Jackson, Geo. W. Lane, Charles Watrous.

Committee on Vacancies—B. B. Sherman, J. C. Havemeyer, Geo. H. Meller, Oscar Zellicoffer, Dexter A. Hawkins, S. D. Babcock, G. P. House.

The Executive Committee was directed to put itself in immediate communication with the various reform organizations, and the several political parties, with a view to confer and cooperate in the nomination of suitable candidates for the offices of the City and County to be filled at the next election. After full discussion of the objects and policy of the Committee, it was resolved to do all that lay in its power to induce the political parties to put in nomination such men only as have the public confidence for ability and integrity—or, failing in that, to use the alternative power with which it was charged in its constitution, and select and present for the suffrage of the people independent nominations.

The Sub-executive Committee had a session after the adjournment of the main committee, at which Judge J. Emmott was made Chairman. The Secretary was directed to issue invitations to the several reform organizations and the officers of the political parties to confer at an adjourned meeting to be held on Thursday evening next.

Alleged Infanticide in Brooklyn.

Coroner Jones held an inquest, yesterday afternoon, on the body of a new-born infant, found last Saturday in the sink of a privy at No. 841 DeKalb-avenue.

Dr. A. W. Shepherd, who examined the body, described its appearance, and gave as his opinion that "death had resulted from hemmorhage from the umbilical cord and neglect." In other words that it was a case of infanticide. The young woman, Mary Fitzpatrick, who was arrested on suspicion of being the mother of the child, had been previously examined at the Station-house by Dr. J. S. Burdick, who told the officers that they had got the wrong woman, whereupon, she was immediately released.

At the inquest yesterday, Mrs. Erntwine, a German lady residing at No. 841 DeKalb-avenue, testified to a state of facts going to show conclusively that Mary Fitzpatrick is the mother of the child, notwithstanding the opinion of Dr. Burdick. Beside the indubitable ocular evidences, she had the confession of Mary, who besought her, in a heart-broken manner to "have mercy on me. I am a poor servant girl. Do not inform on me." Mrs. Erntwine replied that she would tell, and she did. Her testimony was corroborated by others who were cognizant of the facts.

The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the statement of Dr. Shepherd, and found that Mary Fitzpatrick is the mother of the child.

The Coroner issued a warrant for the arrest of the woman, who, by the way, has not been seen since her release at the Station-house.

Meeting of the National Rifle Association.

A special meeting of the directors of the National Rifle Association was held yesterday afternoon at No. 194 Broadway, Gen. Shaler, Vice-President, in the chair. After the general routine business had been transacted, the Committee on Range reported that they had visited the grounds and found the work progressing rapidly. The Committee also reported that the goods ordered from England had arrived and were now on the range at Creedmoor. They consist, among other things, of fifty target slabs, six feet by two; one double and two single mantlets, with appurtenances; seventeen ringing centres and fifteen trigger tests.

Adjutant Harding, on behalf of the Twenty-second Regiment, tendered the gratuitous use of their range at Clifton, N. J., until the Association range at Creedmoor is completed, for the use of individual members of the Association on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. The offer was accepted, and a vote of thanks was given to the officers of the regiment.

Gen. Shaler reported that, in regard to the appropriation, by the Board of Supervisors, of $5,000 to the Association, that the money can be had on application.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Patrick Quinn Inquest—No Murder—Death Caused by a Fall.

Coroner Jones yesterday held an inquest at the Morgue on the body of Patrick Quinn, which was found Sunday morning in a yard in the rear of a tenement house corner of Willoughby and Navy streets, under circumstances that led to the supposition that he had fallen a victim to foul play.

Six witnesses were examined, among them Wm. Snyder, the accused, whose statement corresponded in every particular with the one he made when arrested and which has been already published in the TIMES.

The verdict of the jury was as follows: "That the said Patrick Quinn came to his death by an accidental fall, during the influence of alcohol, and we hereby exonerate the accused, William Snyder, from all blame."

After the rendition of the verdict Snyder, being under a commitment by Justice Riley, was remanded to jail to be taken before the committing Magistrate for his final discharge.

Quinn's funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the Morgue, and was largely attended.

Richmond County Politics.

The Republican Convention of Richmond County held an adjourned meeting Monday afternoon, at which David W. Judd was renominated for the State Assembly by acclamation. Mr. Judd, being present, declined the nomination for personal reasons, which rendered his acceptance impossible. He thanked the Convention for its expression of confidence, urged the importance of securing an earnest Republican Legislature, with a view to completing reform measures, and predicted the certain triumph of any good sound man who should be put into the field for Assemblyman.

Blake Hillyer, of Westfield, was then nominated by acclamation, amid great applause.

Capt. R. H. Cortelyou, an ex-soldier, was nominated for County Clerk. Rev. James Brownlee was renominated for School Commissioner. W. H. Allen was named for Justice of the Court of Sessions, and Dr. Golder, of Westfield, was nominated for Coroner.

Destructive Fire on Broadway—Loss Estimated at $20,000.

Shortly after 11 o'clock on Monday night, a fire broke out in the basement of the four-story brick building No. 473 Broadway, running through to No. 40 Mercer-street, occupied on the first floor and basement by J. J. Johnston & Co. dealers in hats, furs and straw goods, and the upper floors by H. Bacharach & Co., importers of ribbons and fancy goods. The basement, where the fire originated, is occupied as a packing-room. Mr. Johnston, one of the members of the firm, and his shipping-clerk, had been at work, until 11 o'clock, packing goods, and the fire was discovered soon after they left. It is supposed to have originated from a gas-light setting fire to one of the beams of the ceiling. The loss of Messrs. Johnston & Co. is estimated at $8,000, which is fully covered by insurance. H. Bacharach & Co. sustain a loss of $10,000; insured for $77,000. The building is owned by Dr. Cheesman, and is damaged to the extent of $2,000; fully insured.

Suicides by Poison.

Coroner Young was notified yesterday to hold an inquest in the case of Mrs. Julia Marchaud, a native of France, fifty-two years of age, who had committed suicide at her residence, No. 628 Sixth-avenue, on Monday evening last, by taking Paris green. It appears that the deceased had been an invalid for some years past, and, despairing of recovery, determined to terminate an existence which had become a burden to her.

Edward Marno, the young German who was found on Monday evening by the Police, at Forty-second-street and Eleventh-avenue, suffering from opium poisoning, died yesterday at Bellevue Hospital. Despondency induced by lack of employment.

TUESDAY, Oct. 1—P. M.

The First of October Schedule of the Public Debt of the United States, as telegraphed by summary from Washington, this Afternoon, exhibits the further decrease in the principal of the Debt of $10,327,000 since the 1st of September, making the total amount paid off by the present Administration since March 4, 1869, $358,468,000.

The Treasury has on hand $8,500,000 in Currency and $78,500,000 in Gold. The Gold Notes of the Treasury outstanding at the close of the month of September amount to $25,800,000.

We have a recurrence in Wall-street, to-day, of the singular state of the markets a fortnight or three weeks ago—a triple corner. Gold was cornered, Money was cornered, and Pacific Mail Stock (as in the case of Erie Stock on the previous occasion) was worse than cornered. The latter was run up so rapidly, and maintained with such tenacity, that transactions in a few hours to the extent of nearly a hundred thousand Shares, or two-thirds the outstanding Capital, failed to make an impression on the stiffness of the market. While the victims to this operation—said to be the Gould-Smith party—were made to writhe under the punishment of Capt. Stockwell and his following, rumor says they were engaged in cornering the supply of Money to the Brokers, to repress a sympathetic advance in other Stocks than Pacific, of which they are heavily short, and also in annoying the Gold deliveries and the Foreign Exchanges by making the Cash Gold especially scarce, at the same time advancing the price in the open market to 114½ ₱ cent. For the use of the Cash Gold until to-morrow ⅛@⅜ ₱ cent. was charged and paid, and in at least one instance of $600,000, one per cent. was exacted for a single day! The extra Interest paid for Money after 1 o'clock was a sixteenth to one-eighth of one ₱ cent. oversight. To promote this particular corner, the supposition is that for several days past a fresh withdrawal of Greenbacks has been going on, by way of weakening the ability of the Banks.

Various stories are current in respect to the Pacific Mail movement, and also about the Gold corner. One report is, that a large private settlement was made a few days ago between the Gould-Smith clique and the great Bulls in the Stock, and that soon thereafter the former threw out fresh contracts to the same, if not a much larger amount which the latter very quietly bought. Another private settlement was essayed this morning, but without success, and on the attempt by the Bear clique to buy in their Shorts at the Exchange the price of the Stock was run up from 73⅞ to 78 ₱ cent.

On the Gold corner rumor has it that the clique have developed separate and conflicting interests; that Smith some days ago closed out his Gold privately and went short, while Gould retained his old interest and quietly bought more on the sales of his confederate, and in this operation had the help of another heavy operator who "went" for Smith, on Gold, as he had previously captured him on Erie. Meanwhile the foreign trade and the Foreign Exchanges are seriously incommoded by these sharp Wall-street practices, and Bills on London, on peremptory orders to sell, could not be cashed within ⅛@⅜ per cent. of the rates of yesterday, because the Gold could not be had to pay for them.

The repeated Money corners or "lock-up" transactions, to which there must necessarily be two parties, (the clique and their Bankers,) are exciting attention and some feeling in the Clearing-house, where a rule was adopted some time since against any Bank or Banks holding the accounts of these or other Brokers like them, that are knowingly used for the objects of a "lock-up." Rumor points to at least one Bank as amenable to this rule, being the Banker of one or more of the confederate Broker firms of the clique; but whether on mere suspicion, growing out of the recent run of the balances at the Clearing-house, or on some overt act of conspiracy with the "lock-up" party, we are unable to say.

The Stock Market was firm, as against close and costly Money. There was an advance of 1@1¼ ₱ cent. on yesterday's sales of Western Telegraph, and a strong feeling in New-York Central and most of the Western Roads, while the Public Funds and the Railway Mortgages were steady on the sales of the day, the former leaving off firm.

At the close of the Stock Exchange, the following quotations were made, as compared with Monday night. The intimations (perhaps thrown out for effect) of very close Money to-morrow, caused a somewhat weaker feeling on the Railroads:

The week's exports of Domestic Produce have been to the currency value of $4,716,438.

OFFICE ALEMANNIA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, CLEVELAND, OHIO, AND NO. 150 BROADWAY, N. Y.
CASH ASSETS.....$450,000

NEW-YORK, Oct. 1, 1872.

In consequence of the failure of Messrs. Prindle & Mangam, and the numerous damaging rumors in circulation regarding the Alemannia Insurance Company of Cleveland, Ohio, we would state that they are in a sound and prosperous condition, their Cash Capital being $250,000, and Cash Assets $450,000, and that all just claims against the Company will be honorably settled.

ISIDORE WOLF, Assistant Secretary.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

☞ BANKING HOUSE OF FISK & HATCH
No. 5 NASSAU-ST.,
NEW-YORK, Sept. 18, 1872.

DEPOSITS received, on which we allow interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum. Special arrangements made with Savings Banks and others depositing large amounts.

We issue CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT available in all parts of the country, and bearing interest in case of special deposit.

We make COLLECTIONS for merchants and others in all parts of the country.

Orders for INVESTMENT STOCKS and BONDS executed at the Stock Exchange, on commission, for cash.

We deal in GOVERNMENT and other FIRST-CLASS SECURITIES, such as CENTRAL PACIFIC and CHESAPEAKE and OHIO BONDS.

The small amount of CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO BONDS remaining in the hands of the Company, will be disposed of by us at private sale, giving investors an opportunity to purchase this favorite security upon terms which should insure an advance upon the completion of the road and their introduction at the Stock Exchange.

A difference of about twenty-five per cent. may be realized by exchanging FIVE-TWENTIES and other Governments, and about thirteen per cent in exchanging CENTRAL PACIFICS, for these Bonds.

FISK & HATCH.

☞ INVESTMENTS.

We continue to sell at par, adding accrued interest, the First Mortgage Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. On the completion of this season's contracts there will be FIVE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEEN miles of the main line of the road in operation, uniting Lake Superior with the Missouri River, and securing the large traffic of the North-west. This amount of road also entitles the Company to ten million four hundred thousand acres of land located in Central Minnesota, Eastern Dakota, and in the Columbia Valley, on the Pacific coast. The bonds are secured by a first mortgage on the road, its traffic and franchise, and on the entire land grant received from the Government. The rate of interest is Seven and Three-tenths, Gold, equivalent to about Eight and a Quarter per cent. in Currency. Believing the security to be ample, and the rate of interest satisfactory, we recommend these bonds as a desirable investment. Holders of United States 5-20s, and high-priced corporate securities, may materially increase both their principal and their interest income by exchanging for Northern Pacifics.

☞ THE CHICAGO AND CANADA SOUTHERN
First Mortgage Sinking Fund Thirty Years
7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

We recommend to investors as a Safe and Profitable security. Present price, 90 and accrued interest. Interest payable April and October, at the Union Trust Company, Coupon or Registered. This road is the western end or link of the Canada Southern, which together form the new trunk line from Buffalo to Chicago, running directly into Chicago on its own line; is straight and level, and the shortest line now built, or that can be built, between Chicago and Buffalo. The great accumulation of freights at Chicago and Toledo, even now, beyond the capacity of the present Trunk Line, renders the speedy completion of the road an absolute necessity. Pamphlets and all information furnished by

The Recorder then paid a highly complimentary tribute to the industry, integrity and ability of the retiring officer, and concluded by wishing him peace and happiness for the remainder of his days. John McKeon, District-Attorney Garvin, ex-Judge Beadle and Col. Charles Spencer also paid high compliments to Mr. Vandervort, who, after forty-two years faithful service, now retires to honorable repose.

United States Circuit Court—Criminal Business.

The Court was then adjourned until this morning. Among the cases on the calendar are those of Charles Rosenfield, indicted for perjury; James Boyd Smith, indicted for counterfeiting; Joshua D. The Seigfreid Murder.

In the case of Frederick Heggi, now on trial in the General Sessions for the murder of Frederick J. Seigfreid, Prof. Endemann, who made the analysis, testified, on being recalled, that he also applied microscopic tests. Col. Simmons Clark testified that Dr. Guido Furman, who testified for the defense, was dismissed from the Board of Health, and was there considered a man of bad reputation.

Heggi was recalled and contradicted Mrs. Seigfreid as to the coachman who drove him in from Newark.

Counsel for the prisoner then proceeded to sum up. The case was not concluded.

A Williamsburg Mystery Explained.

About 6 o'clock on Monday evening, while a number of boys were engaged removing empty barrels in the cooper-shop of J. T. Briggs, North Tenth-street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, Williamsburg, they came across one which was full, and on examining it, found that it contained human remains. Taking one of the hands, the boys rushed into the street, and soon the neighborhood was alarmed by the rumors of another Rosenweig murder. Later in the evening the attention of the police was called to the fact, and the barrel was removed to the Fifth Precinct Police Station, where the contents were examined by two surgeons, who pronounced them to be the remains of two bodies, a male and female. The head, chest and pelvis were missing. Further investigation discovered the fact that they were the remains of subjects operated on by Dr. Almond Briggs, a student, and had been there with the knowledge of the proprietor of the cooper-shop, (a brother of the doctor,) for over three months, having been preserved in some kind of pickle. The barrel and contents were yesterday morning removed to the Coroner's office, and the persons concerned notified to appear and give their statements of the facts in the case.

SECOND CAMPAIGN EDITION OF THE
NEW-YORK TIMES.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Our second campaign edition is now ready. It is a paper of great value and interest, containing many articles especially written for it, and a very large collection of SHORT QUOTATIONS from the best letters and speeches which have been published during the canvass. These selections are pithy and full of point, and must prove of great service to clubs, speakers, and newspapers. They have been prepared with great care, and names and dates are carefully given in every case. The general contents render this the most effective campaign paper ever issued, and one which is indispensable to Republicans throughout the country.

Among the interesting features of this edition may be included the following:

1. An article bringing together the outrageous slanders upon Gen. GRANT which have been circulated under the authority of HORACE GREELEY, either in his own paper or his other organs—together with an incontestable refutation of these slanders.

2. Mr. GREELEY'S letters recommending bad men for office, showing the real drift of his sentiments as a "Civil Service Reformer."

3. A reply to the attacks upon Gen. HARTRANFT, Republican candidate for Governor in Pennsylvania.

4. GREELEY and TWEED—their partnership in a tobacco manufacturing company. The proofs and the facts, showing GREELEY'S close and secret alliance with TWEED during the reign of the "Boss."

5. DOOLITTLE: His dishonesty and bad faith. Portrait of a sample Greeleyite.

6. REUBEN E. FENTON: A short sketch of a career which began in embezzlement, and was succeeded by corruption of the worst kind. FENTON'S exploits as a dishonest clerk and a corrupt Governor will be partially described in this article—an article rendered necessary by the fact that FENTON would hold a very high office if GREELEY could insure his own election.

7. GREELEY'S Secession Record: A list of his utterances on that subject, with examples from 1860 to 1872.

8. The OAKES AMES Slander, invented by the Sun and New-York Tribune, fully disproved.

9. The Cincinnati platform and address, with notes by HORACE GREELEY. A very interesting and curious article, well worthy of preservation.

10. Gen. DIX'S famous order: Who wrote it? The truth on the subject.

11. A selection in short and pithy paragraphs, from the best speeches and letters which have been published during the canvass. These quotations would alone render the campaign edition of great value to the Republican cause all over the country. They include paragraphs, bright and pungent, from the speeches and writings of WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON, GERRIT SMITH, FREDERICK DOUGLASS, RICHARD H. DANA, Senator CONKLING, Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER, Dr. LIEBER, Senator MORTON, Vice-President COLFAX, Judge HOAR, Judge STELLO, Senator FERRY, Attorney General WILLIAMS and others. Whenever anything of force has been spoken or published, we have extracted the best part of it and reserved it for this special edition.

The edition consists of four pages, price three cents a single copy, or $2 per hundred, and $20 per thousand. Orders should be sent in without delay, as we can only supply them according to the dates at which they are received.

For some days past the World has been throwing out dark hints about the Mayoralty. It puts its finger to its lips, tells us all to be very quiet, and whispers softly that it will tell us the name of its next candidate for Mayor if we will only behave ourselves. It was so big with its secret yesterday that it almost exploded in the effort to keep it in a little longer. Well, now, suppose we come to the relief of the World. The egg it has been sitting on so long, and making such a clucking over, we will hatch for it. The name of its candidate (and the candidate of Tammany Hall) is Mr. WILLIAM BUTLER DUNCAN. Why could not the World tell us so at once? We shall only say today that no nominee of Tammany Hall will be acceptable to the people of this City, and that the Reformers will beat Mr. DUNCAN or anybody else whom Tammany and its old ally, the World, may advocate. By the bye, the World will be interested in learning that Mr. S. L. M. BARLOW has subscribed fifty thousand dollars to the Greeley election fund, and has been promised the post of Attorney-General in return. The worst of it, for BARLOW, is that GREELEY stands no more chance of being elected President than BARLOW himself, and that the post which Mr. BARLOW covets has been promised to two or three other persons—a remark, by the bye, that applies to all the chief posts in the Cabinet. If GREELEY were elected, what a row there would be when all the persons who have received promises of appointments from him met together! Mr. GREELEY ought to thank his stars that he will be spared this dismal spectacle.

It is evident that the Democrats are not quite as confident as a week ago concerning Georgia. The election, however, which takes place today, is one of no very great importance with reference to the national canvass. State officers only are to be elected. The candidates for Governor are DAWSON A. WALKER, Republican, and the present incumbent, JAMES M. SMITH, Democrat. The last closely-contested election was in 1868, when the Democrats carried the State by something over forty-four thousand majority. This year the election was placed earlier than usual, to shorten the time in which the colored voters could pay their poll-tax—a piece of contemptible political trickery, which has not yet attracted the attention of the pure and zealous "Reformers" of the Fenton-Greeley school.

Our readers are reminded of the Republican meeting to be held this evening at the Cooper Institute. These weekly meetings are having an important influence over the campaign, and all who desire to see an honest State ticket elected should make it a point to attend to-night. Hon. SYDNEY PERHAM, the newly-elected Governor of Maine, and Hon. MARTIN I. TOWNSEND are the speakers announced, both gentlemen being well worth hearing on the leading issues in national and State politics.

The other day Mr. GREELEY'S man was very indignant with us for describing Mr. KERNAN as a copperhead. Yet this is what Mr. GREELEY himself wrote of KERNAN in October, 1864—when the facts about KERNAN'S war record were fresh in the public mind:

> "But in 1862 he was nominated and supported under pledges that he would give a vigorous support to the war, and to the Administration in prosecuting it—pledges which he did not scruple personally to make and conspicuously to violate. There is not a more envenomed copperhead in the present Congress. Even salutary fear of his Republican constituency did not deter him from voting generally with PENDLETON, LONG, HARRIS & Co., against most war measures, and when he did not venture to vote on that side he generally dodged. In short, his election was a fraud, grounded in treachery and false promises, and consummated by wholesale bribery, and he ought long since to have resigned."

The World shows but poor profit from its years of devotion to political economy. It has announced the doctrine that every Custom-house where the expenses exceed the imports is a "swindle," and it includes in this category the Custom-houses on the coast of Maine. The World can hardly be ignorant of the fact that a large portion of the work of these stations is in connection with the importation of salt for the fishing vessels, an article which pays no duty and produces no receipts, but requiring nearly as much labor as if it did. Nor can that journal forget that if there were no Customs service on that coast, the smuggling would be simply incalculable.

Still another step has been gained in the progress of the civil suits against TWEED and other members of the Ring. The preliminary point on which the counsel for TWEED, CONNOLLY et al., have taken their stand is in reference to the legal competency of the people of the State to appear as complainants to recover money abstracted from the Treasury of the County of New-York. The demurrer entered by the defense against the right of the people of the State to sue, has now been decided against them by a single Judge, by the Judges of the Special Term, and by those of the General Term of the Albany District. The only resort now left to them is to the Court of Appeals. There they will doubtless carry the demurrer, and when the final decision is recorded, as it can hardly fail to be, on the side of the people, the civil suits will proceed to trial on the merits. All this delay shows what an inestimable advantage there is in stealing on a scale stupendous enough to be able to spend without stint money which belongs to the people, to cheat the people out of justice and reparation.

The Prospects of Greeleyism.

The Greeleyites are concentrating all their efforts on electing BUCKALEW, who is not a Greeleyite, in Pennsylvania. In doing this they declare to the country that they regard that State as the most favorable ground on which to choose the "last ditch." They find there some circumstances to encourage them. The local differences and difficulties are much more severe than in any other quarter, and in the hue and cry raised by the Greeleyites concerning dissension among the Republicans, there is this much of truth: Some prominent Republican politicians, with a not very considerable following, are now opposing the State ticket who, in November, will support the national ticket. Of this we have their own assurances in several cases, and on these assurances it is quite safe to rely. Depending on this source of temporary strength, the Greeley party profess to have hopes of carrying Pennsylvania. They have tried to rally from the gloom caused by their heavy defeats in North Carolina, Vermont, and Maine, or have, at any rate, managed to forget how crushing was the first effect of those reverses; and they are now bragging more loudly than at any time since the contest in North Carolina.

Nevertheless, we have not the slightest reason to abate our confidence that the Republican State ticket will be elected in Pennsylvania. We do not make any predictions about majorities. But our advices are quite conclusive that the victory on Tuesday will be a decided one. Yet it will afford no adequate idea of the strength of the Presidential ticket. On national issues the Republican Party in that State is as strong as it ever was, as it is also in all the other States of the Union. The hubbub raised by a few organs and orators is of the slightest possible consequence. The mass of sensible men throughout the country are not in the least deceived by it. They understand perfectly well that the Republican Party has managed the affairs of the nation with prudence, vigor, and honesty. They know that the honor and prosperity of the country are safer in its hands than in any other, and they will vote in accordance with that belief.

But the Greeleyites are preparing for themselves a fatal blow. They are proclaiming by their present conduct that if they are defeated in Pennsylvania, they are irrecoverably lost. They announce beforehand that that State is their chosen battle-ground, and they elect to make their last desperate stand there. If they are beaten, as beaten they will be, on Tuesday, they will have nothing to look forward to but four weeks of painful dissolution, culminating with the Presidential election. Our friends will remember this when they hear the mad boastings with which the opposition are now seeking to rally their adherents.

The Democratic Candidate for Governor.

> "We have placed in nomination for Governor a man who opposed Democratic corruption."
> —Seymour's Speech at Oneida.

"Opposed Democratic corruption!" When, when, with what tokens of disgust, or of aversion? What do the Democratic corruptionists propose to do about it? Do they intend to vote for him? If they do, it throws suspicion upon his sincerity or their own. If they are disposed to vote for him, we don't believe that he ever opposed them. If they can trust him in that way, it is because they have no good reason for being afraid of him. The corruption that has demoralized the Democratic Party, and destroyed public confidence in its purity, was the act of the whole party, and must be punished by remitting the whole party back again to a minority, stripped of power and responsibility. The party stands condemned like a pack of marked cards. It won't do to shuffle them over, and turn one of the same kind up for a trump again. The chance for reform would be poor, indeed, if the party that has been found guilty of robbing the treasuries of the people, State and Municipal, and has filled the executive departments and legislative halls with corruption, shall be permitted to retain power, and continue to extend their practices without forfeiture of the popular favor, or punishment of any kind.

Mr. SEYMOUR claimed that the Democratic Party had nominated an "honest man" for Governor, but nothing more. What are his surroundings? Could not Mr. SEYMOUR say as much for the rest of the ticket? He did not. He knew the candidate of that party for President of the Senate and chief of the Canal Board. He is a most notorious lobbyist, and has lent himself to the passage of bills that should ruin him forever in the public estimation. Is he to be allowed to slip into office, where he can perpetrate or connive at other frauds, by holding on to the coat-tails of this "opponent of corruption?" So with the Democratic candidate for Canal Commissioner. Foiled in their attempt to secure a corruptionist for Canal Commissioner in the Republican Convention, by the surprise which placed Fraud upon that ticket, the whole "Canal Ring" rushed into the Democratic Convention, and made a sure thing of HUBBARD'S nomination. Is he to be foisted into office too by running upon KERNAN'S good name as an "opponent of Democratic corruption?" This man HUBBARD has been twice elected to the Senate, in a decided Republican district, by the corrupt use of large sums of money drawn from New-York, and coming from the immense amounts furnished through TWEED, SWEENY, HALL, CONNOLLY & Co., and their associates, and from the swindling operations of Tammany Hall. If he used their money, what better is he than they? And if he and DEPEW are running on the Kernan ticket, why should KERNAN be exempted from the sweeping besom of "reform?" No, no! the argument will not stand; these candidates must share a common and ignominious fate, or our elections will become a sham and a mockery, offering no security for the correction of abuses, or the preservation of free institutions.

Mr KERNAN, in justice to himself, should stipulate for freedom from the association of blacklegs, lobby agents, and canal "Rings." If he is truly an honest man, this is the only way in which he can obtain impunity from imputations of the most damaging character. If he has a reputation above reproach, let him stand up fearlessly, and insist that he will only lend his name for party purposes by allowing it to be used with other people's as free from stain as he can claim to be himself. No party obligation can be allowed to require the sacrifice of his own good fame. We have shown by what dangers he is environed if he continues to keep company with DEPEW and HUBBARD.

"Next."

Mr. GREELEY'S successor was so enraged at finding his political preceptor, REUBEN E. FENTON, shown up in his true colors, that he at once recorded his vow to bring out that terrific "cudgel" of his, and forthwith destroy every person holding an office in this City under the Administration. He began by inventing a string of untruths about Mr. LAFLIN, and wound up his "article" by crying "Next"—evidently having practiced as a barber at some period of his life, though not upon himself. His old habits cling to him, and so he frequently calls out "Next" in his beautiful articles—it reminds him of dear old times, when scissors and pomatum were the materials of his craft instead of scissors and paste. Well, the "next" turned out to be Gen. ARTHUR, Collector of this port, a man of culture, ability, and unsullied honor—in short, just the sort of man our Professor of Hair-dressing and Journalism delights to libel. It matters very little to anybody what he said about Gen. ARTHUR, for nobody believes a word he says—seeing that he has already libeled the following eminent citizens in a way which must rather shake the faith even of a Tribunitish audience:

GERRIT SMITH—A "humbug."

WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON—An "abusive old Radical."

Speaker BLAINE—A "pertinacious young man."

Gen. DIX—A "mercenary old man."

ANDREW D. WHITE—A "tool of the Custom-house."

Judge SETTLE—A "minion of power."

R. H. DANA, Jr.—A "jackdaw."

Senator WILSON—A "paltry creature." "We drop Mr. WILSON. No one can mistake him for an honorable man."

Mr. GREELEY'S locum tenens having gone deliberately into the business of slandering and black-mailing, it is desirable that somebody should try whether the law offers no redress; but in the meantime it is necessary to expose the rascal every time he concocts a fresh batch of calumnies.

He says that Gen. ARTHUR was made Quartermaster-General of this State on July 10, 1861; that in May, 1862, he (Gen. ARTHUR) awarded a contract for caps to Mr. MURPHY at ninety-five cents, in preference to L. J. PHILLIPS & Co., who had offered to supply the caps at sixty cents. He further says, or insinuates, that Gen. ARTHUR was appointed Quartermaster-General in order that this "fraud" might be consummated, and that MURPHY and ARTHUR pocketed the profits arising out of it.

The whole statement is false from beginning to end, and Mr. GREELEY'S successor knew it was false. He has transposed dates and twisted facts in a way which justifies us in denouncing him as a literary swindler. It was in July, 1862, (not 1861,) that Gen. ARTHUR was appointed Quartermaster-General, though he had, prior to that time, been Inspector-General and acting Assistant Quartermaster-General in charge of the office in New-York, and it was in May, 1861, (not 1862,) that Mr. MURPHY and Messrs. PHILLIPS made a bid for supplying caps. Thus, these two dates have been entirely transposed by GREELEY'S successor—not accidentally, but willfully. Gen. ARTHUR was not Quartermaster-General when the contract referred to by the Tribune was made. Gen. ARTHUR never received a bid, or decided upon a bid, from Mr. MURPHY or Mr. PHILLIPS.

The contract in question was awarded by the Military Board, consisting of Gov. MORGAN, Lieut.-Gov. ROBERT CAMPBELL, Controller ROBERT DENNISTON, Secretary of State FLOYD JONES, Attorney-General CHAS. G. MYERS, State Engineer VAN R. RICHMOND, and State Treasurer PHILIP DORSHEIMER—the latter the father of the Greeley orator, WILLIAM DORSHEIMER. The records of that Board, as officially presented to the Legislature, show that the bids were opened and the contract awarded at Albany by the unanimous vote of the Board on May 24, 1861; that on June 4, the Board sent three of its members, Messrs. MYERS, DORSHEIMER and DENNISTON, to New-York to take charge of the inspection of the goods, and that these gentlemen appointed their own inspectors, bringing one from Ogdensburg and one from Buffalo, and that on July 2, this Committee reported to the Board that the caps had all been delivered of a quality "equal to the requirements of their contract."

In short, the public official records of the State show that Gen. ARTHUR had nothing whatever to do with receiving the proposals, or with the award of the contract, or the inspection of the goods under it, and that the Tribune's charge is a gross, palpable and malicious libel.

Is it not monstrous that a ruffian like GREELEY'S temporary hack should thus go on libeling most respectable men in the community, simply because a thief and bribe-taker named FENTON has been exposed?

When the Tribune was in its senses, this is the way in which it spoke of Gen. ARTHUR, (December, 1862:)

> "It gives us great pleasure to call attention to the honorable official career of Gen. CHESTER A. ARTHUR, late Quartermaster-General of this State. During the present war this gentleman has devoted himself most assiduously to the public interests, and discharged the many arduous duties devolving upon him with unbending integrity. We have never heard of even a suspicion attaching to one of his official acts. Gen. ARTHUR now resumes the practice of his profession in this City, enjoying the unlimited respect and confidence of his fellow-citizens."

And as late as November of last year, upon his appointment as Collector, it described him as of "unimpeached private character."

The Perils of Locomotion.

From a report just issued by the British Board of Trade, the surprising fact is made clear that it is less dangerous at any time to be traveling in a railway carriage than to be walking in the streets of London. Vehicles, that is to say, drawn by horses, kill and maim more people than vehicles drawn by steam. It appears that, in the year 1871, a few more than 328,600,000 passengers traveled on the railways of England and Wales, exclusive of season ticket holders. Of these it is asserted that not more than six were killed by "causes beyond their own control." If many such accidents occur as that which befell a train running from the Worcester Festival to London, on Sept. 13, and described by Mr. SANTLEY, the vocalist, in a lately-printed letter, this statement becomes literally amazing. It is, however, set forth in very exact terms, and being several times repeated, must, we suppose, be accepted as true. That only one person in fifty-four millions, which is the rate of six such deaths a year, should be killed while traveling by rail, while an average of six persons a week are killed in the streets of London, is a remarkable commentary on the fearful auguries of forty years ago, when it was declared that the employment of steam-engines for this purpose would inevitably cause more mortality than war or pestilence; and it looks stranger still, when we remember that excursion trains are now so frequent in England, and that they transport so vast a number of passengers.

It should be said, however, that 1871 was an exceptionally lucky year, and that the cases of injury through railroad accident during the year bore an unusual ratio to those that were fatal. The former, in fact, in the same time, came up to 691. On the other hand, the injuries of 1870 amounted to 994, and those of 1869 to 891; while in 1861, when the number of passengers carried by rail was less by more than half the number of last year, the cases of injury were 762. A progressive improvement is thus shown, which promises to bring down the rate of casualties by steam transit to a very low average. The same thing is true of the Western, as of the Eastern, Continent, the roads generally becoming safer in proportion to the number of people who travel by them. Of course, there are still collisions, runnings off the track, breakings through bridges, and so on, to a lamentable extent; but in the point immediately under discussion—namely, the ratio of fatal, or other, accidents, to the total number of passengers—it will be found that ratio tends always to decline, and that the diminution is accelerated in proportion to the increase of passengers.

Unluckily, as regards street accidents, if the exact opposite does not obtain, results show something very like it. It is often spoken of as wonderful that, with the immense throngs pressing their way through the streets of New-York, more accidents to life and limb do not occur. But, in point of fact, the number of such accidents is very great, and is, moreover, alarmingly on the increase. The narrowness of Manhattan Island where travel is greatest, and the inadequate utilization of such width as there is, brings about daily a pressure which is fraught with perils, and is too often attended with disasters. Three people were knocked down and trampled on in less than a minute, the other day, in Broadway, during one of those spasmodic rushes of drays, stages, and carriages that follow a protracted "block." To be sure, they are paving Broadway in sections just now, and the usual trouble is thereby aggravated; but still the evil is essentially a growing one, and calls for serious consideration.

Our peculiar experience in this respect, and the demonstration that people are safer in steam-cars than in streets, add further reasons to the palpable one of convenience for earnestly wishing the quick construction of the under-ground railroad. It seems to be about the only practical method of relief, and it is satisfactory to know that it is likely, in the long run, to avert casualties as well as to save time. To go under-ground for safety, like rabbits or moles, would certainly have struck our ancesters as an odd resource; but it is one that may be hereafter resorted to with great alacrity, especially by ladies and invalids, who have had much occasion, of late, to be in the lower part of Broadway between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Deserted Lear.

In Nodaway County, Missouri, there resides an old farmer, who appears to have suffered severely in what most persons will be disposed to believe a very foolish cause. Living in a sort of semi-barbaric style, on the verge of a picturesque wood, and having spent more than his neighbors in the education of a large family of daughters, he became accustomed to regard it as exceedingly impertinent for the sons of other farmers to visit his house with matrimonial intentions. To such an extent did he cultivate this opinion that the daughters themselves, fearful that they might be doomed to be old maids, grew impatient, and resolved to encourage eligible bachelors on their own account. The courtship was all the more romantic and inspiriting through having to be done at secret places in the wood. Signals were exchanged, so that the lovers might never be surprised at their trysting places. This system was continued for a considerable time without any hope that the "stern parent" could be brought to reason. Ultimately, to vary the monotony, it was considered desirable that one of the daughters should elope by way of experiment, to see how the old man would be affected. The result was a shooting match, which ended in a compromise, and the marriage of the disobedient fair one with the youth of her choice.

The success of the scheme so charmed the second daughter and her lover that they, in a reasonable time afterward, resolved to go and do likewise. As in the first instance, they, too, were discovered, and the shooting scene was re-enacted. Happily for the combatants, some friends interposed, and the affair terminated without either having been wounded seriously, the lovers being in due course made happy. After this it came to be regarded as a risky thing to undertake the courtship of the remaining daughters; but as the young men were not wanting in either courage or enterprise, further elopements were planned and successfully carried out, until the old man was robbed of all his treasures, with the exception of one, and she was only spared to him by reason of her tender years. However, misses of thirteen and fourteen Summers do not take long to bloom into marriageable young ladies, and this case, as it so happened, proved no exception. Being the last of the family, she was looked upon as the greatest prize, and as a consequence, the competitors were more numerous. The day of the elopement arrived at last. Taking advantage of the temporary absence of the watchful old man, the undutiful daughter jumped into the buggy of the most venturesome of her lovers, and started at break-neck speed for the Iowa line. As ill-luck would have it, however, the enemy was encountered on the way, and what promised to be a deadly contest commenced with revolvers. The old man dismounted and used his horse as a shield against the murderous bullets that were aimed at him. The young girl took refuge under the seat of the buggy and called to her valiant lover "to sail in and cripple old dad." After such an admonition, as may be expected, the lover felt stronger for the battle, and literally "rained bullets" around his antagonist.

Not being able to get a chance at him without destroying the "shield," the inglorious youth resolved to shoot through the body of the horse. The plan succeeded so well that the old man, having had one of the fingers of his right hand carried away, threw his pistol upon the road. Sharp as thought, the lover reseated himself in the buggy, and never drew rein until he arrived at the house of a magistrate, where the pair were united in wedlock. It will be remembered that the fights which followed all preceding elopements in this family invariably ended in forgiveness and reconciliation, although the readiness of the old man to make terms was, in point of fact, not attributable to a sudden change of sentiment. He would still have vengeance if he could, but, finding the intended sons-in-law wounded, while he had only received a scratch or two, he thought it better to arrange matters. In the case of the last daughter, the circumstances were entirely different. This time it was the old man who came off second best; and, in order to balance the account, he procured a warrant for the arrest of the young man on a charge of attempted murder. The bride has since been found, but without the bridegroom—the whereabouts of the latter, as she asserts, being entirely unknown to her. Now, it is quite evident from the unhappy experience of these young persons, that it is not always good policy to cripple the pursuing parent in the hands, for this may only impede his progress an hour, at most, whereas the slightest touch of a bullet lower down, say at the cap of the knee, or the ankle, can be relied upon to provide him with as much as he can attend to for several weeks. If there are any other families addicted to the queer practices above described, this hint may be worth attention.

MINOR TOPICS.

It does not seem reasonable to suppose that one man could obtain a monopoly in the business of painting the warning to passengers which decorate our street-cars and ferry-houses; and yet the uniformity with which these warnings fly in the face of LINDLEY MURRAY, and defy even the ordinary rules of orthography, points to a common origin of them all. The street-car placards inform the public that "No person is allowed to get on, or off, or stand on the front platform"—a rule which, instead of applying merely to the front platform, as the author evidently intended that it should, really forbids any one to use the car as a public conveyance. So, too, the direction displayed conspicuously at various ferries to the effect that "No one is permitted to leave the boat until made fast to the bridge," would, if strictly obeyed, lead to the cheerful spectacle of scores of ferry passengers chained to the bridge, and waiting in vain for their release. It is not improbable that the hypothetical person who prepares these warnings likewise superintends the lettering of the street lamps. The fact that the names of streets are so often displayed upside-down, or are affixed to the wrong side of the lamps, and thereby made to mendaciously inform the stranger that "Broadway" or the "Bowery" runs directly through a solid block of buildings, strongly suggests the suspicion that the same hand directs the stranger in the streets, and warns the traveler in the cars and ferry-boats.

The petroleum producer is apparently as strongly addicted to discontent as was the Israelite who marched after Moses. The wanderers in the desert clamored for meat, and when they were furnished with quails, which all men concede to be a delicacy, straightway grumbled at the sameness of this diet, and pined for the Irish stews for which the Egyptian kitchen appears to have been famous. Similarly, the petroleum person was terribly discontented when his well did not flow; but now that it flows with oil to an extent which leaves the land of Canaan entirely in the shade, he is bent upon choking it. At the present moment, nearly all the well-owners of the oil regions have corked up their wells, while the few who have declined to follow this example are receiving gentle hints, in the form of smashed machinery and scuttled oil-tanks, that their course is in opposition to the wishes of the community. The reason of this attempt to stop the production of oil is the fact that oil is now exceedingly cheap, and the well-owners hope to raise the price by lessening the supply. Undoubtedly the price will rise as the supply falls off, but have the oil-men asked themselves precisely how much they will gain by selling five barrels of oil at a dollar a barrel, instead of ten barrels at fifty cents each? Perhaps if they had solved the problem they would neither have corked up their own wells, nor smashed their neighbors' engines.

There is an old proverb which inculcates the justice of giving even that undesirable person, darkly alluded to in extremely serious circles as "the adversary," his due. How much more then should we give praise to that well-meaning optimist, the Chief Signal Officer, when his management of the weather is undeniably meritorious. Look at his conduct yesterday. In the morning the clouds hanging over this City gave every promise of a rainy day. The Chief Signal Officer, however, did not falter in his duty. He boldly promised "clear weather," and lo! before midday the clouds vanished and the sun came out. Now, however much we may condemn the evident mismanagement which resulted in the intense heat of July and August, conduct like that of yesterday demands that the Chief Signaler should receive our thanks. Indeed, as a rule, his predictions are trustworthy. Occasionally he shows a disposition to "hedge," as when he promises "clear and partially cloudy weather;" but usually his predictions are plain, and afford him no means of evasion in case they prove to be erroneous. The public will gladly see him retained in office for another four years, for even were his mistake to be of daily instead of rare occurrence, he would still be much preferable to the Chief Signal Officer whom H. G. would appoint—were he to have the power—and who would doubtless try to give us thunder-storms in January, snow-squalls in July, and meteoric showers every day in the year.

The Italian population of this City is perhaps one of the most orderly and inoffensive of all the varied races that are represented among us. The Italian, however, is neither long-suffering nor unnecessarily meek, as a small boy yesterday learned to his cost. This young rowdy had been engaged, in company with other small boys as vicious and undesirable as himself, in teasing and maltreating an Italian woman who kept an apple-stand on a street corner. After enduring their taunts and juvenile brutalities for some time, she finally became exasperated at the small boy who seized her by the foot in order to upset her, and stabbed him severely. It is, of course, impossible to commend the violence of the woman. Not that the small boy is of more value than the apple-woman—a proposition manifestly absurd and utterly untenable—but that the apple-woman, not being a well-dressed woman of infamous life, like LAURA FAIR, has no right to kill either boys or men. Before she can claim a license to kill, she must abandon her apple-stand, and enter upon the course of life which endeared Mrs. FAIR to the Californian juryman.

In reading about the French exodus from Elsass-Lorraine, of which the cable furnishes some fresh details, it is well to bear in mind the fact that the German law permits foreigners to own property in Germany, and that the French subjects who leave the newly-annexed province cannot be compelled to sell their houses or farms. The rule is absolute, however, that the inhabitants who choose to continue French must leave the territory. Undoubtedly many peasant proprietors will find the struggle between patriotism and the problem of living, a sufficiently hard one. Their German ancestors probably found it equally hard to accustom themselves to the exactions of LOUIS the Magnificent, and doubtless longed for a return of their old Teutonic liberties when the later and more grinding oppression of the impecunious successors of the Great Monarch left them barely enough to buy bread withal. Of such are the revenges of history.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theatrical.

OPENING OF WALLACK'S THEATRE—PYGMALION AND GALATEA.

Wallack's opened last night for the regular Winter season. A new play was acted for the occasion, and several new players were introduced in it. The piece is called "Pygmalion and Galatea," and its author is Mr. W. S. Gilbert. It has been highly successful in London, and Mr. Sothern, who was to have begun the season here, has directed its production. The theatre was densely filled, and the attention of the audience was naturally first attracted by the new and very beautiful decorations. These were the theme of admiration, which was mingled with amazement when it became understood that the entire work of renovating, cleansing, painting, gilding, varnishing, and all, had actually been done within the space of forty-eight hours. A performance was given in the house on Saturday, and last night saw the entire auditorium transformed, as by the touch of an enchanter, and presenting the appearance of an entirely new interior. What is still more to the purpose, the work is in excellent taste, and reflects the utmost credit on the judgment no less than the energy and liberality of the management. To return to the play, "Pygmalion and Galatea" is an original and striking piece of literary work. Its leading idea is, of course, of classic origin, but the treatment is peculiar, imaginative and highly poetic. Miss Catherine Rogers, from the London theatres, appeared as the heroine, and was well received. The lady is a trained and experienced actress, and if not precisely an ideal representative of the character assumed by her, has certainly power and feeling. Mr. Boniface represented the hero, Pygmalion, Mrs. Foster his sister, and Miss Edith Challis his wife. The drama created a highly-favorable impression, and contains some effects that are extremely pleasing. We shall endeavor, when more space is at command, to do justice to its literary merits as well as the histrionic pretensions of the performers. "Pygmalion and Galatea" will be offered nightly until further notice.

Musical.

THE RUBINSTEIN CONCERTS.

The sixth Rubinstein concert took place at Steinway Hall last evening. It was marked by the familiar incidents, and was attended by the usual excellent results. Both Mr. Rubinstein and Mr. Wieniawski played superbly, and the audience never wearied of recalling the artists in token of the delight with which their efforts filled them. The pianist commenced the entertainment with his admirable concerto No. 3 in G major, and in the second part he recited a nocturne by Field, a minuet by Schubert, a ballad by Chopin, three of Mendelssohn's "Songs Without Words," and the march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Mr. Rubinstein's execution of all these pieces suggests remarks which, if made, would be repetitions only of earlier references. No painter has at his disposal a greater variety of color than Mr. Rubinstein has in his touch, and compositions of almost every style find in him an interpreter of equal sensibility and technical skill. We do not, however, admire the performer's rendering of Chopin equally with his other readings. The excessive brilliancy and might of his delivery are not easily subdued, and we have heard the ballad in G minor sung with more impressiveness than was given it last night. The concerto was a magnificent performance; the "Songs Without Words" were expressive in a degree never before attained; the effect of the march from the well-known setting of Shakespeare's fairy story, can only be pictured to one's self by him who has listened already to the Titanic power of Mr. Rubinstein. Mr. Wieniawski's pieces were Ernst's air from Bellini's "Il Pirata," with variations, and his own Russian airs. We have never heard a more eloquent andante than that with which the violinist prefaced the remembered tune; for purity and volume of tone and breadth of bowing, nothing better could be wished. After-passages with staccati and a profusion of double notes, showed that Mr. Wieniawski is facile princeps of executants conspicuous for their mastery of the mechanical difficulties of the instrument; and his Russian airs reaffirmed the fact, and caused so positive a manifestation of the public desire for a supplement to his announced contributions to the bill, that a portion of the work was repeated. The seventh concert may be attended at Steinway Hall to-morrow.

ITALIAN OPERA.

"Faust" will be sung at the Academy of Music this evening, with Mme. Lucca as Marguerite, Signor Vizzani as Faust, M. Jamet as Mefistofele, and Signor Sparapani as Valentino. It is hoped that Señorita Sanz, who has been ill for some days, will have recovered sufficiently to allow her to personate Siebel. The lady's place will be taken, should it be necessary to supply it, by an artist who has already sung in the concert-room, but has not yet appeared in opera in this country.

THE TRIBUNE FORGERY.

Further Exposure of Mr. Greeley's Successor's Infamy—An Offense Which Ought to Subject a Man to Imprisonment—A Faithful Public Servant Libeled by a Reckless Slanderer—Clear Proofs of the Fraud.

The Tribune announced, with all the emphasis of italics and small caps, that "Speaker Blaine was proved to have received stock worth nearly two millions," and that "chief among the men who thus opposed the road until he was 'bought' to support it, was Hon. Speaker Blaine, who went into Congress a poor man, and is now credited with possessing millions." This, if it meant anything, meant that Mr. Blaine, while in Congress, was bribed to favor the passage of a railroad bill. Thereupon we showed that the bribery—if any there was—took place in May, 1862, and that the document on which the Tribune relies to prove the bribery, is itself dated May, 1863, while Mr. Blaine did not enter Congress till December, 1863. This conclusive answer to all its charges, the Tribune seeks to sweep aside by saying, "Of course, there is the old quibble about dates. These people want the public to imagine that with the first passage of a railroad bill the Company gains all it means to ask, and straightway leaves the doors of Congress forever more. In other words, the Tribune wishes its readers to believe that certain men from Kansas, being in Washington engaged in buying their bill through Congress in the Winter and Spring of 1862, devoted about eighty thousand of their two hundred thousand shares to that purpose, and at the same time had the foresight to see that they might want further legislation, and that a man then known only as a local politician in Maine was sure to be elected member of Congress and would in due time become Speaker, and so they gave him an anticipatory bribe of about half as much stock as they gave to Greeley's friend Camp and all the others combined to pass their bill. Even those who continue to read the Tribune have not enough stupidity to be imposed upon by such nonsense.

We charged the Tribune with forging and mutilating a paper, and challenged its production. The Tribune answers that it is going to publish a fac simile, as if a man who could alter an original could not get up a fac simile to agree with it. We again challenge it to submit the original to inspection. Meantime, we venture to say, it will not publish any fac simile of the whole document. Will it deny that it deliberately suppressed the allotment of stock to "Benjamin F. Camp and others?"

The Tribune says "the quotation showing that Blaine, of Maine, got 32,500 shares of assessable stock, worth $1,625,000, and 5,900 shares not assessable, worth $295,000, was correctly made in Saturday's Tribune." Now mark how plain a story will expose this pretense. The contract which the Tribune refers to, by which the road was sold to Hallett and Fremont, is dated May 28, 1863, and bears upon it the name, among other persons, of Clark Bell, a member of the Greeley State Committee. It recites that there were thereby sold 114,490 shares of the total of two hundred thousand, leaving 85,510 shares in other hands. It then says that of the latter amount 83,160 shares are to go to fill the contracts made in Washington, and that the remaining 2,350 are in the hands of original subscribers. There were then only 83,160 shares to be disposed of, and if the Tribune schedule, as published, calls for more it must be erroneous. If any one will take the trouble to foot up the Tribune's schedule it will find that, counting the stock which it alleges went to Blaine, that schedule calls for 87,250 shares of assessable stock and 12,640 of non-assessable, or, in all, 99,890 shares, while there were only 83,160 available. The Tribune schedule is, therefore, we repeat, on its face a lie. But the Tribune does not and cannot deny that in publishing the schedule it omitted no less than fourteen items. These omitted items include the three thousand shares allotted to "Camp and others," and 17,670 shares allotted to other persons, making of shares suppressed by the Tribune 20,670. If these are added to the number which the Tribune's schedule calls for, we have a total of 120,560 shares alleged to have been distributed, when there were only 83,160 available for that purpose. If, however, our assertion is accepted that the 32,500 shares of assessable and 5,900 shares of non-assessable stock, in all 38,400 shares, assigned by the Tribune to Blaine, arises from a stupid and willful transfer to him of the footing of a page, the other allotments will amount to precisely 83,160 shares. The demonstration is complete. The Tribune has not only lied willfully, but it has lied stupidly, for it has itself furnished the means of exposing its own lie.

Under any circumstances, therefore, of all the Tribune's story there only remain the 200 shares which we say are allotted to Blair, which the Tribune says means Blaine. We say that, no matter what the paper in the Tribune's hands may at present show, the other copies, which are as official as that possessed by the Tribune, distinctly show that the name is Blair. Does the Tribune dare to produce its paper and submit it to a comparison with others?

The Tribune, without saying it, seeks to give the impression that Camp was at the time of these transactions no friend of Greeley's. Will it dare to deny that this same Camp in 1861 was Greeley's engineer in trying to procure his election as Senator? Will it dare deny that in that same and the following year, Mr. Greeley was by letter and otherwise trying to procure for Mr. Camp contracts under the State and nation? Will it dare deny that Mr. Greeley recommended Mr. Camp to Mr. Lincoln for the place of Surveyor of the Port of New-York? Will it dare deny that, even within a year or two, Mr. Greeley has, in company with Camp, besieged the Departments at Washington to procure the payment of a cotton claim which Camp owned? We assert that all these things occurred, and that if Mr. Greeley has now broken off his intimacy with Camp, it has been done long since the stock was allotted to himself "and others."

And now, is it not about time that the Tribune turned its attention to Greeley's swindling in the tobacco business with Tweed? Or does it prefer to explain the bribe of $1,000 which was placed in Mr. Greeley's hands in connection with the Des Moines Navigation bill in Congress? Or will it throw some light upon the persistent lobbying in Washington and in the Tribune for the Mediterranean and Oriental Steamship Company's scheme, by which $10,000,000 of the people's money, and millions of acres of land were to be assigned to a company which had not a dollar of real capital, but upon whose books Mrs. Greeley, and Mrs. Cleveland—Greeley's sister—and Mrs. Sinclair—the wife of Greeley's partner, appear, as receiving without paying for them, handsome interests? Or will it give the history of the persistent lobbying in Congress and in the Tribune in favor of the Norman Wiard claim? In that claim Greeley has an interest of $12,000 or $13,000, and Sinclair of as much or more. It has been reported upon by a military commission as utterly groundless, but yet Mr. Greeley has not only given up column upon column of the Tribune to the advocacy of its payment, but has made more than one journey to Washington to lobby and bully members of Congress into voting to pay it, all the time concealing the fact that he was personally interested in it. When the Tribune has explained all these things, it will perhaps expose Mr. Greeley's operations at Washington in connection with Indian lands, and if it wants more work of this kind, we shall be prepared to give it.

MR. BLAINE SPEAKS.

The Tribune's and Mr. Greeley's Falsehoods Denied Emphatically, and Proved by the Speaker to be the Blackest Untruths.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 1.—At the great Republican demonstration to-night Mr. Blaine, in the course of a masterly address, spoke as follows on the Tribune and Mr. Greeley, and their wicked and malicious falsehoods:

In the New-York Tribune, of Saturday last, and also of yesterday, I am charged not only as a Representative in Congress, but as Speaker of the House, with having received $1,930,000 of the stock of the Eastern Division of the Pacific Railroad Company for my services and influence in procuring the passage of the original Pacific Railroad Bill of 1862. The Tribune gives the date of the act in the same article in which it makes the charge, not seeming to notice in its blind desire to assail me, that it was simply convicting itself of falsehood and of folly. Now, gentlemen, please observe, that in 1862, when this act was passed, I had not taken my seat in Congress. I had not been elected to Congress. Indeed, I had not been even nominated for Congress. When the act to which the Tribune refers became a law I was member of the Maine Legislature and Speaker of the Lower House. I had no more to do with Congressional legislation than the fish-wardens and tide-waiters on the Kennebec River; and yet the New-York Tribune asserts and repeats that for my services and influence in Congress, at the time I was member of the Maine Legislature, I received nearly two million dollars in stock of a great railroad corporation. And now, gentlemen, if I were to stop here, after demonstrating the utter absurdity of this charge, the Tribune would come out coolly and say that Speaker Blaine had not denied it. Let me, then, deny it in the presence of this vast assemblage, and deny it in the most emphatic manner. Neither in 1862, nor in any subsequent year, did I ever receive or own directly or indirectly a single dollar of stock in the Eastern Division of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, or any other division of the Pacific Railroad Company.

Nor did I ever receive a dollar directly or indirectly from the sale of any stock of that company. In short, gentlemen, I stamp the whole story as not only false on its face but absurd and ridiculous. But I do not expect to make a denial that will satisfy the Tribune. A few weeks since, when the story was started that Secretary Boutwell, Vice-President Colfax, Senator Wilson, Mr. Garfield, Mr. Dawes and myself and others, had been bribed by presents of stock in the "Credit Mobilier" I published a card on the eve of the Maine election, saying I had never owned, directly or indirectly, through myself or through another, a single dollar of stock in the credit mobilier. The New-York Tribune pronounced this denial evasive and unsatisfactory, and said I did not deny that I had received dividends or profits therefrom. Any candid man, I think, could see that my card was intended to be exhaustive, and to exclude all suppositions of ownership. Let me say now, however, that not only did I never own a share in the credit mobilier, but I never received, directly or indirectly, a single penny therefrom in any manner or shape whatever. But this mania for bearing false witness against your neighbor has seized Mr. Greeley personally, as well as the New-York Tribune, for I observe that in a recent speech in Pennsylvania he states that more than $100,000 had been expended by the Republicans in Maine in the purchase of votes at the recent election. Now, in the very nature of things, it would be impossible for Mr. Greeley to know that this was true, but I know it is absolutely untrue. I am Chairman of the State Committee, and on my order every dollar of the funds of that Committee was disbursed, and from first to last we did not have in all control of but little more than twelve thousand dollars; and I further assert that every dollar of this amount was expended either in the payment of speakers, distribution of documents and papers, or the bringing home of absent voters. These accounts of the State Committee are kept with rigid exactness, and the entire committee of sixteen men will testify to the truth of what I state. I arraign Mr. Greeley, therefore, as a slanderer of the Republicans of Maine—a party of as gallant and true men as ever cast an unpurchased and unpurchasable vote.

THE COAST SURVEY.

Report of Prof. Pierce, Superintendent of the Coast Survey.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Prof. Benjamin Pierce, Superintendent of the Coast Survey, has submitted his annual report to the Secretary of the Treasury.

In all the Northern sections parties are yet in the field, and will so continue until the approach of Winter, when transfers will be made for resuming operations in the Southern sections of the coast. Surveying parties are now engaged either in triangulation, topography or hydrography on the coast of Maine.

Special astronomical observations have been made at Cambridge, Mass., to determine the precise relation in longitude between points in the United States and points in Europe. Special examination has been made to verify the sailing directions for the harbor chats for the coast of New-England. The tides have been recorded constantly, during the year, at North Haven, in Penobscot Bay and at the Charlestown Navy-yard. The plane table survey of the coast of Rhode Island is in progress near Perrysville, west of Point Judith, and also the detailed survey of New-Haven Harbor. Special hydrographic investigations are in progress in New-York Harbor and in the adjacent waters, and the tides have been steadily recorded at Governor's Island. Field parties are completing the shore-line survey at the south end of Lake Champlain, and others are sounding its northern branches. He reviews at some length the work done along the coast, and says the magnetic elements have been determined in the vicinity of Philadelphia, and at Washington, D. C.; tides have been regularly recorded at Old Point Comfort, Va.; a geodetic reconnoissance is in progress near Harper's Ferry; the detailed survey of James River, Virginia, has been extended upward to Warwick River; twenty new charts have been published during the year, and nine others which show extensive additions in comparison with their first issue, and tide-tables for the ensuing year have been prepared, and will be published as heretofore.

"ROSH HASHONO."

Commencement of the Jewish New Year—How it Will be Observed in this City.

This evening, the Hebrews throughout the globe will commence the celebration of their New Year festival. With perhaps the solitary exception of the Day of Atonement, which closely follows it, "Rosh Hashono," or the New Year, is more strictly observed than any of the periods set apart for religious observances in the Jewish calendar. The passage in the Bible alluding to the festival is found in Numbers, chap. xxix., verse 1., and reads as follows:

"And in the seventh month, (Tishri,) on the first day of the month, ye shall have a holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work: it is a day of blowing the trumpets unto you."

The festival commences at sunset this evening, and among the orthodox Jews continues until Friday at sunset, while the Reform congregations celebrate but one day. The services in the various synagogues are of the most solemn and interesting character, and attract great congregations of worshippers. One great feature of the service is the blowing of the "Shopher," an instrument of a peculiar nature, manufactured from a ram's horn, in commemoration of that instrument used by the priests in the services in the Tabernacle and in the Temple at Jerusalem, and which is alluded to in the passage given above.

The ten days, commencing with the first day of the Jewish month of "Tishri," which happens on Thursday, and continuing until "Yom Kippur," or Day of Atonement, are known as the Penitential Days, and are set apart for peculiar religious observances, looking to a repentance for past sins and prayers for Divine forgiveness.

During the continuance of the festival of "Rosh Hashono" all the Jewish synagogues will be open for Divine service, morning and evening. Sermons will be preached on Thursday by Rev. Dr. Vidaver, at the Thirty-fourth-street Synagogue; Dr. S. M. Isaacs, at the Forty-fourth-street Synagogue; Rev. Dr. Adler, in German, and Rev. Dr. Gutberni, in English, at the Fifth-avenue Temple; by Rev. Dr. Einhorn, at the West Thirty-ninth-street Temple; by Rev. J. S. Noot, at the Stanton-street Synagogue; by Rev. Dr. Milziner, at the Norfolk-street Synagogue, and at the other synagogues by the preachers in charge.

OBITUARY.

Edward De Witt.

Not only the Bar of this City but the entire community has sustained a severe loss in the death of Mr. Edward De Witt. A man of singularly sound judgment and great quickness of perception, his modesty prevented him from exhibiting in the Courts the elegant learning and scholarly attainments which were so peculiarly his own. Devoted to the study of the law almost from boyhood, he loved it to the last. With a thorough classical education, he enjoyed the research and labor incidental to a long professional career, characterized by the strictest integrity. Indeed, for years he has deservedly occupied the position of the safest chamber counsel at the Bar, and of being one of the best equity lawyers in the State. His clients, who were chiefly the "solid men" of the City, having large interests or estates, felt always safe in his advice; and more than one of these, in passing away, has left Mr. De Witt sole trustee and guardian of his family interests. Like his honored father, the late Mr. Peter De Witt, he was really a lawyer of the olden time—large-hearted in his feelings, strict in his views of professional duty and ethics, nice in his sense of honor, zealous in protecting his clients' interests, firm in his counsels and wise in his advice.

He needs no eulogy. The tears of the widows and fatherless, whose sole adviser he was in many instances, and who in him have lost a sincere friend, will best attest the truth of what has been above written. His life is an example worthy of imitation by his younger brethren of the Bar, and he died as he had lived, an honest lawyer and a Christian gentleman.

William Prescott Smith.

A brief telegram from Baltimore states that William Prescott Smith, master of transportation of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, died in that city at a late hour last evening. In the death of this gentleman the railroad interests of the country have sustained a severe loss, for few men have done more for American railroads than Mr. Smith. He was born in humble circumstances in Baltimore, and was about fifty years of age. In 1850 he became a clerk in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad office, and step by step rose to the position of master of transportation, the actual manager of the vast working interests of the road. During the war he was notable for directing the transportation of many thousands of troops over the road, which carried more than any other in the United States. In this connection he won the friendship of Mr. Lincoln, and Secretary Stanton, which continued warm and unbroken until the death of both of those distinguished men. A disagreement with President Garrett led to his retirement from the road for a short time, and he was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue in Baltimore, but resigned it to become manager of the New-York and Washington through line, which he organized into its present efficiency. Politically he was a Republican, and as far back as 1843 sympathized with the free-soil movement. Socially he was one of the most pleasant and witty of men, and his gentleness of disposition had much to do with his great success during life.

The Kernan Cross Cards.

The Sun yesterday printed a senseless letter from a correspondent, the latest dodge for circulating a base slander, stating that the Kernan cross cards are being printed in the TIMES office for circulation among Protestants. It is scarcely necessary to stamp this statement as a falsehood, for a more willful lie was never uttered; but it may be well to say here that no such printing could be done in this establishment, as we have no job-office at hand. Having been detected in the manufacture of these bigoted cards, the Greeleyites now resort to their favorite method of escape, and endeavor to make people believe that "it's the other man." But it won't do, gentlemen; you have been fairly caught this time.

CARL SCHURZ'S TALK.

The German Democrats and Greeleyites Under the Eye of their "Leader"—Mr. Schurz's Political Views.

The German Democratic mass-meeting at Cooper Institute, last evening, was well attended, and, if numbers are any criterion, might be called a success. Unfortunately, however, for the numerical theory, a large portion of the audience was drawn to the Institute rather out of curiosity to hear what Carl Schurz might say, and to hear him broach his fantastic ideas, than from any sympathy with the sorehead cause which he advocates. Many of the Germans present, in conversation, spoke strongly against the views held by the speaker, and said that if he persisted in his course he must alienate himself from the great body of the German population. As far as could be discovered it would appear that the assemblage was a mixed one, so far as parties are concerned, and that the numbers were very nearly equally divided in point of politics. This opinion was confirmed by the character of the applause, which was weaker than is ordinarily the case at large meetings, which are enthusiastic and unanimous in the support of particular candidates.

The seats were nearly all occupied at an early hour. A large platform had been erected in Eighth-street, in anticipation of a greater crowd than Cooper Hall would hold, and from this stand various speakers addressed an audience numbering about 150. Alderman Schlichting called this meeting to order, and Mr. Otto Sackersdorf was elected as Chairman. Besides the speakers of the evening, who occupied the platform, there were several policemen, four reporters for City papers, and R. Wert Van Gernebach. J. Bellam, from Philadelphia, was the first speaker, and his remarks were listened to with some attention. J. Brensing, of Philadelphia, and Dr. Mercie, of New-York, followed in short addresses.

Within the great hall, after the meeting was called to order, the great event of the evening—the speech of Carl Schurz—was in order. Punctually at 8 o'clock the meeting was called to order by Prof. Glenbenskiee, whereupon Dr. Krackowitzen was called upon to preside, who, in taking the chair, in a few opening remarks argued that Greeley, if elected, would not use the Administration as a stepping-stone toward a re-election for a second term. The Chairman thereupon introduced Senator Carl Schurz, who, on his appearance at the speaker's desk, was received with demonstrations of the greatest enthusiasm. The Senator introduced his remarks by saying that, whether Democrats or Republicans, it was their duty above all to be American patriots. The questions involved in the present campaign were not of a personal character; the question was not whether the name of our next President should be Grant or Greeley, but whether a system of misgovernment, resulting from the war against the rebellion should continue for four years longer. [A voice: "English!"] Senator Schurz thereupon spoke a few words in English, stating that the meeting had been appointed to be addressed in German, and as such he had accepted it. The majority present, he said, were Germans who wanted to be heard in their own language.) [Tremendous applause.] [Voice—All right.] The Senator then spoke of the injustice of withholding general amnesty long after the enforcement of general suffrage, describing the evil consequences resulting therefrom. As one of these evil consequences of such misgovernment, the Senator recounted the misrule of the carpet-bag Governments in the Southern States, which he described as truly revolting and oppressive. How was it possible that such Governments could have existed for any length of time? This the Senator explained by stating what he had observed and experienced during his campaign in North Carolina. The negro population under the carpet-bag Government had been organized into secret clubs and societies, whose members followed blindly the directions of their leaders. Having addressed many meetings which were mainly composed of colored people, he had addressed himself mainly to these. And what had he discovered? That they had been told that he (Senator Schurz) could not be believed, for he, like Senator Sumner, had been during all his life a Pro-Slavery Democrat. [Laughter.] These unfortunate States, under this system of Government, had been reduced to the verge of bankruptcy, and should this system of misgovernment continue for four years longer? No. He had been a Republican, but as a Republican he would not give his vote to uphold such a system of Government. [Tremendous applause.] During the war it became, as in the days of Rome, when the enemy was before its gates, necessary to clothe the Government with extraordinary powers to enable it to save the country, and the country was saved in this wise. Bot Governments had a tendency under such circumstances to assume a despotic character, and the people had a tendency to submit to the exercise of extraordinary power. And through what political school had our young men passed who, at the time of the war were twelve or thirteen years of age, and who are now our best voters. They had not grown up in the spirit of our Constitution, and it was our duty to bring this young generation on the pathway of the Constitution. If the President was clothed with the arbitrary power to declare an act of war, as he had done, his powers were as arbitrary as those of the Emperor of Germany, for this potentate had not even the power to overrule the officers and legislators of the Empire. If the President of the United States showed no respect for the laws of the nation, what could be expected from officers of the lower grade? The Secretary of the Navy, the Senator endeavored to show, had, in his transactions, construed the law in his own way. The Secretary of War had, during the Franco-German war, sold arms to French agents, and how was it in this case with the respect of our Government for the law? The matter was investigated, and it was conclusively shown that these sales were effected without the slightest reference to the law. These sales had been effected on the principle that by a violation of the law more money could be made for the United States Treasury than by an observance of the law. It was done on the principle that the laws are only to be observed by the governed, and not by those who exercise the business of governing. The Senator then argued that the officers of the Federal Government had ceased to be independent; they were the political slaves of the Administration, and the opinions dictated from above they had to advance, not in the usual way, but by the use of their whole power. Thus fifty thousand Government officers, with a hundred thousand Government subordinates, formed an immense political agency of the Administration, and a great machinery by which the President will enforce his re-election. The Treasury of the United States, as at present constituted, was nothing but a great campaign fund. Did they believe that certain accounts were honest which since last year had increased from twelve thousand to one hundred thousand dollars? Just think of the Treasury of the United States as a great campaign fund. Was this a Government for the people and through the people? Did they believe this Government belonged to the people? If so, they had better divest themselves of that pleasant delusion. [Laughter.] This Government did not belong to the people; it belongs to Ulysses S. Grant! [Applause and laughter.] Was there any Republican present who could deny these facts? [Voices—No! Several voices—Yes! More voices—No! No!] Considerable excitement and confusion resulted from this incidental question of the speaker, which, however, soon subsided. The speaker continuing, assailed the Grant Press as being supported by Government subsidies, and severely commented on the personalities and extravagance indulged in by the Administration Press. He had passed through many a campaign, but never before had he experienced such indecencies and abuses as perpetrated in the present period. Suppose everything that was said of Horace Greeley was true, did they know what the re-election of Grant would signify as such? It would signify the sanction by the people of breaking the law. It would signify an indorsement of the man who violated the Constitution; it would signify a sanction of the violation of the Constitution. It would involve a sanction of misrule and misgovernment in the South. It would involve a sanction of party despotism, gentlemen. Would you do that? [Voices—"No!"] Did they know how it had been possible to plunder this City for years? It was simply done through a slavish organization, whose leader the devil himself might have been. What would Tweed and Connolly have been if they had not had the support of their slavish organization? If you re-elect Grant you will have the most corrupt Administration which this country ever has seen. It was said that a corrupt Administration was there now, but that corrupt Administration, in the event spoken of, was not there now. Grant, in the event of his re-election, would be backed by servile party servants, and the Government would be in a condition to be fit to do anything. The people of the South the Senator continued, were willing to accept the constitutional amendments; they were willing to be good citizens again, but they were begging for one thing. They said, let us not be robbed for four years longer. Why, they were our fellow-citizens, and had not they to live with us and we with them? Do you believe that you can abuse the Souther people long with impunity? New-York City owed its richness to trade and commerce, and could they allow the Southern people to be robbed and to remain poor? Was it not their interest the South should prosper, that they might become good buyers, and how could the South prosper as long as the Southern people were oppressed in the way they have been? As for the New-York merchants, who were so timid about Greeley, and who had been complaining so much that they were plundered so much, they would be plundered ten times as much in the event of a re-election of Grant. [Applause.] Gentlemen merchants! in that case we shall not save you, because we would not be unable to save you; because in the moment of Grant's re-election we would be powerless against the Administration. He knew that there were Germans sympathizing with this movement, but not giving it their support, for fear of loss in business. Such reasons for withholding their support from a great national movement, when such great interests were at stake, were too small. The Germans had become at last a great nation, and it was now time that they ceased to be a people of small cheesemongers. [Cheers.] They should not consider small losses in business, when the Republic was in danger.

Dr. Hartwig Gerke read a series of resolutions, which were adopted, whereupon, in conclusion, a brief address was delivered by Frederick Dittmann, of Philadelphia.

South Carolina Obligations.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

The letter of Mr. Delaney, who represents the Republican State Committee of South Carolina, gives some encouragement to holders of the State bonds, but I find upon investigation that they have their protection in their own hands. Each law under which the new bonds were issued is in conformity with the Constitution adopted in 1868, and carried with it a provision for a tax for a sufficient amount to pay the annual interest, and it becomes the duty of the Auditor to levy such tax annually. In case he should neglect to do the same it can be enforced by mandamus.

If the bondholders would join and enforce their rights it would undoubtedly result to their advantage.

TAMMANY'S JEALOUSIES.

Result of the Smelling Committee's Work—The Ward Committees Fighting Vigorously—A Lack of Harmony and a Plethora of Jealousy.

The entrance to Tammany Hall was besieged last evening by a dense and struggling crowd. The occasion was the meeting of the Tammany General Committee. A force of Police was on guard to preserve order.

Among the prominent members present were Augustus Schell, John Tubbs, John Kelly, Patrick Maginnis, Samuel J. Tilden, Martin T. Keese, Alfred T. Ackert, John B. Doland; Samuel B. Garvin, Henry Woltman, Michael Norton, Henry Genet, Wm. Walsh, Nelson W. Young, Ignatius Flynn, Judson Jarvis, John Fitzpatrick, Gen. Spinola, Thomas Dunlap, E. M. Plum, Jas. Gibbons, Justices Coulter, Dodge, Scott and Ledwith, and John Hampson.

The second report of the Committee on Organization was read. The charges against members of the General Committee from the Third, Fourth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth and Sixteenth Assembly Districts were fully investigated, and further inquiry was made into the charges against members from the Seventeenth District. All efforts to harmonize the Third Assembly District were unavailing, and it was recommended that no action be taken in their case except that each division be required to appoint one inspector of election for primary elections for delegates to conventions, and that the Chairman of the General Committee appoint a third one, and that the place of holding the primary in the district be designated by the General Committee.

The Fourth Assembly District was of such a character that it was reported as "utterly impossible to harmonize them without making invidious distinctions," and the seats were declared vacant.

The charges against individual members in the Seventh District were reported to be untrue, and the Committee asked to be discharged. In the Eighth District it was reported that great inefficiency and want of activity were in part proven. No disloyalty, however, appearing, it was recommended that the complaint be dismissed.

In the Ninth District, it was reported that "there was no harmony of action by the Committee, and a great lack of confidence in each other, and political jealousy to the extent which, if continued, would be very detrimental to the necessary efficiency so urgent at this particular time. Members of the Committee, however, thought the matter could be reconciled."

Charges against individuals in the Tenth District were discussed. It was believed to be utterly impossible to arrange the Sixteenth District, by reason of the discordant elements in the Committee. To make the Committee effective, it was recommended that the seats of Patrick McMullen and Philip O'Hanlin be declared vacant in the General Committee.

After further investigations of the charges against members of the Committee in the Seventeenth District they were found to be untrue. That part of the report in relation to Patrick McMullen, formerly chief clerk to Cornelius Corson in the Bureau of Elections, gave rise to an exciting discussion.

Mr. McMullen protested against the proposed action of the General Committee. He had been a member of Tammany Hall since he could vote, and wanted to still remain so. He was in favor of Greeley and Brown, and would support the nominations of the organization.

Harry Genet moved that that part of the report referring to Mr. McMullen should be so amended as to allow his retention of a seat in the Committee.

Mr. Alfred T. Ackert, delegate from the Sixteenth District, said that if McMullen was retained upon the Committee that that section of his district headed by Mr. Samuel Tilden would withdraw from the General Committee.

McMullen said he was a friend of William M. Tweed, although a good member of Tammany Hall. "He owed every dollar he had in the world to Tweed."

Mr. Walsh said that if it was to be a question as to whether the General Committee should follow the father of reformers or the father of infamy, he should prefer the latter. He advised the General Committee to accept the action of their executive body.

Mr. John Kelley hoped that the motion of the gentleman from the Twenty-first District (Harry Genet) would be lost. He thought that Mr. McMullen, owing every dollar he had in the world to Tweed, would be ungrateful to act in any way against him. He charged Genet with stultifying himself by signing his name to the report of the Committee on Organization, and then moving to have its recommendations reconsidered. Harry Genet then engaged in a verbal conflict with Mr. Kelley, and denied that he signed the report; it was done by proxy.

The question of the amendment was then put and lost, and the report was adopted in full after much confusion and repeated raps of the gavel by the Chairman.

Resolutions calling for primaries and conventions were then read, adopted, and ordered to be printed. The primaries will be held Oct. 3, Judiciary and Congress Convention, 5th; City and County Convention, 7th; Assembly Convention, 15th; Assistant Aldermen, 17th. The name of Mr. Duncan, of the firm of Duncan & Sherman, was canvassed among the Committee yesterday for the Mayoralty.

Upon the presentation, yesterday, to Mr. John McCool, of the resolutions of the National Reform Democracy nominating him for Mayor, he reserved his decision.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

As expected, the business transacted at the Exchange yesterday, Tuesday, Oct. 1, was of a very interesting character, a number of sales being consummated and an extensive bit of valuable City real estate disposed of. The attendance of buyers and others was large, bidding moderately active, and the prices realized in most instances, fair. The following is a review of the proceedings:

Muller, Wilkins & Co., at an Executor's sale by order of the Supreme Court, disposed of three lots, each 25 by 102.2, situate on the north side of West Eighty-fourth-street, 175 feet east of Ninth-avenue, for $6,050 each. Also three lots, same size, on the south side of West Eighty-fifth-street, adjoining those in the rear, for $5,950 each. All purchased by M. & S. Steinberger. At same sale same firm also sold four lots, each 25 by 100.8½, situate on the south side of West Ninety-second-street, 200 feet east of Tenth-avenue, for $4,100 each, the purchaser being J. H. Hasbrouck. This entire property sold well.

A. J. Bleecker, Son & Co., under a Supreme Court order, James H. Elliott, Esq., referee, sold a lease, having nine years yet to run, of a plot of ground, in size 63.5 by 107.11 by 59.3 by 130.7, situate on Broadway and running through to Sixth-avenue, about forty feet south of Thirty-second-street, with three three-story brick buildings upon the same, fronting on Broadway, known as Nos. 1,265, 1,267 and 1,269 Broadway, while the Sixth-avenue front, known as Nos. 530 and 532, is occupied as a marble yard, for $52,000 bonus, the purchaser being Wm. Topping, the auctioneer, the plaintiff in the legal action. The lease is dated May 1, 1871, time ten years; rent, first five years, $7,500; second five years, $9,500. The property was sold subject to the tenants' rights in the three Broadway buildings, now renting for about $12,000 per annum, and also subject to a provision in the lease, requiring the purchaser, within five years, to erect on Sixth-avenue a three-story store or brick building to cost not less than $20,000.

E. H. Ludlow, by order of the Supreme Court, in foreclosure, under the direction of R. P. Lee, Esq., referee, disposed of the four-story and basement iron and stone front house and lot, No. 420 East Fifty-eighth-street, south side, 341.5 feet west of Avenue A, (lot, 20 by 100.5, for $13,790; purchaser, James Laehy.) Also, under a similar Court order, Alfred T. Ackert, Esq., referee, the three-story and basement brick house and lot, No. 163 West Forty-fifth-street, north side, 134.7 feet east of Seventh-avenue, (lot, 17.2 by 100.4,) for $11.900; purchaser, J. Lewis Ash.

James M. Miller, at a Supreme Court foreclosure sale, R. C. Beamish, Esq., referee, sold two lots, each 21x100.11, situate on the south side of One Hundred and Tenth-street, 129 feet west of Fourth-avenue; one for $3,500 and the other for $3,700; both bought by F. Mora. The same auctioneer also announced that the Supreme Court sale of leasehold premises on West Broadway and White-street, under the direction of Thomas H. Landon, Esq., referee, noticed for yesterday, had been settled, and the property consequently withdrawn.

William Kennelly sold at public auction the two-story attic and basement high-stoop brick house and lot No. 68 West Tenth-street, south side, 78.6 feet east of Sixth-avenue, (lot 21.6 by 92.3,) for $4,000, over and above a mortgage of $13,000, thus making total price realized $17,000. The purchaser was William Moser. The only other business transacted was an adjournment until Oct. 15, announced by Goodenough & Weber, of the Supreme Court receiver's sale of two lots, with buildings, on First-avenue, between One Hundred and Twentieth and One Hundred and Twenty-first streets. In relation to the suburban auction held at Wyoming, N. J., yesterday, by A. D. Mellick, Jr. & Bro., O. H. Pierson, auctioneer, particulars will be given to-morrow.

The auction held at Woodside, Long Island, on Monday, Sept. 30, by Jere. Johnson, Jr., was, to a certain extent, a success, some forty-eight lots, a house and store, being reported sold for $26,645 in the aggregate. The sale was, however, stopped early in the day, as the owner of the property thought the lots were selling too low. A good number of buyers were present, and some disappointment was manifested. Details as reported are appended; but in glancing at it, and from other circumstances, we are inclined to the opinion that the house, store and lots noted as purchased by Mr. Thomas were bid in in the interest of the party owning the realty. The sale held by V. K. Stevenson & Son at West New-Brighton, also on Monday, at which property owned by Mr. S. Raynor was offered for sale, was a very fair success, for the greater proportion of the lots were disposed of at good figures. The mansion-house and grounds, on Richmond-terrace, were withdrawn, and also two lots on Barker street, the bids received not warranting a sale, but the balance of the property was sold. The six water-fronts on the Kill von Kull and Richmond-terrace brought on an average $1,800 each. A full report of this transaction, with names of purchasers, is also annexed.

Today, at the Exchange, at legal sales, a house and lot on East Eightieth-street, near Lexington-avenue, will be sold by A. J. Bleecker, Son & Co., and a house and lot on East Sixty-eighth-street, near Fourth-avenue, by James M. Miller. The last-named auctioneer will also offer at public auction tenement property, Thirty-ninth-street, near Tenth-avenue, the premises being known as No. 453 West Thirty-ninth-street. Today, also, at Queens, Long Island, on the ground, at 12½ o'clock, Jere. Johnson, Sr., will offer at auction, without reserve, 400 desirable lots, all well located, accessible, on good grade and in every way adapted for immediate improvement. Special train for this auction from Hunter's Point, via James-slip and Thirty-fourth-street Ferries, at 10½ o'clock.

By a reference to a notice in our business columns it will be seen that the lots remaining unsold at the recent auction held at Whitestone, Long Island, will now be offered at private sale on the popular monthly payment plan. A fine opportunity for investment is in this way presented. Passes to Whitestone to view the property will be furnished on application to H. K. Van Sicklen, at No. 133 Nassau street, (Room No. 5,) and full particulars concerning lots, terms, &c., furnished.

EXTENSION RAILWAY

First Mortgage 7 Per Cent. Convertible

GOLD BONDS,

AT 90 AND INTEREST,

Issued by the Indianapolis, Bloomington and Western Railway to aid in building its EXTENSION line West, in a direct line from Champaign (185 miles) to the Mississippi River at Keokuk, and a branch from White Heath (32 miles) to Decatur, all in the State of Illinois. The bonds are secured by a first and only mortgage on the EXTENSION, now being rapidly constructed in the most thorough manner by able and experienced contractors who represent a capital of several millions of dollars, which insures the last rail being laid at an early date. About 60 miles are already finished and 110 miles graded; the whole line, 217 miles, will be completed early in 1873. We have been connected and entirely familiar with the I., B. & W. Railway from its early organization. It was completed in the Autumn of 1870, and has developed rapidly into a SUCCESSFUL AND WEALTHY CORPORATION, having a large revenue from its largely increasing business. With the EXTENSION it will be one corporation, with 420 miles of road, located in a commanding position in the heart of the best portion of the country. The counties on the line of the EXTENSION in 1870 had a population of 242,330; valuation of real and personal estate, $181,000,000; bushels of grain raised, 27,000,000; value of farm products, $25,570,000, and live stock, $18,349,000; to which may safely be added 15 per cent. to represent the present population and value. THE COUNTIES ON THE OLD LINE AND THE EXTENSION TOGETHER CONTAIN A POPULATION OF NEARLY THREE-QUARTERS OF A MILLION, AND A PROPERTY VALUATION EXCEEDING $400,000,000.

From these statistics it will be readily seen that the EXTENSION will have a Local Business that will make it a complete success. In addition to this it will have the entire Through Traffic of the Missouri, Iowa, and Nebraska Road, connecting with it on the Mississippi River, and extending West to the Missouri, 300 miles, where it connects with the Midland Pacific in Nebraska. These two corporations, and also the Peoria and Rock Island (91 miles,) and the Davenport and St. Paul (300 miles,) although separate corporations, ARE CONTROLLED IN THE INTEREST OF THE INDIANAPOLIS, BLOOMINGTON AND WESTERN RAILWAY, and, practically, will be a united line of more than 1,200 miles, the through business of which will pass over the I., B. & W. This is an East and West trunk route and has no parallel competing line. The Eastern connections at Indianapolis are the Pennsylvania Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Bellefontaine, Lake Shore, and New-York Central, and other roads centering at this point. From the Sea-board to the West and North-west distances are materially reduced via this system of roads; so much so that it cannot fail to be the popular line for travel and business. Liberal subscriptions to the stock were made by towns and counties on the line of the EXTENSION, and the remainder has been taken by experienced railroad men and Eastern capitalists.

These facts cannot fail to make the bonds, which will be issued only on completed road, take high rank among the best railway securities.

The bonds are $1,000 each, convertible into stock at par, at the option of the holder, and may be registered free of charge.

Coupons, payable January and July 1, free of tax. The bonds may now be had from banks and bankers throughout the country.

We offer them at present at 90 and interest, and recommend them strongly to our friends and investors as one of the safest and most desirable securities on the market.

Bonds delivered free of express charges. Maps, pamphlets and circulars furnished on application.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS

AT

85 AND ACCRUED INTEREST.

INTEREST PAYABLE IN NEW-YORK, LONDON AND FRANKFORT.

This road will connect JACKSONVILLE, on the Chicago and Alton Railroad, with MOUNT VERNON, and will furnish the Counties of Morgan, Sangamon, Macoupin, Montgomery, Bond, Clinton, Marion and Jefferson with facilities long needed to transport their crops to market.

At Virden, where the deposits of bituminous coal are seven feet in depth, a large business will be created so soon as cheap transportation is assured by the construction of this road to accessible markets.

Thirty Miles from Jacksonville to Airden are already completed and fully equipped. Fifty miles will be finished in time to move the Autumn crops.

THE TOLEDO, WABASH AND WESTERN RAILROAD,
THE PEORIA, PEKIN AND JACKSONVILLE RAILROAD,
THE CHICAGO AND ALTON R. R.,
THE INDIANAPOLIS AND ST. LOUIS RAILROAD,
THE TERRE HAUTE RAILROAD,
THE VANDALIA AND ST. LOUIS RAILROAD,
AND
THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R.,

Act as feeders to the road at various points.

Its connection, also, with the important roads now centering at Mount Vernon and Evansville must also secure it a large and remunerative traffic.

The road forms a part of a through route from St. Louis to the sea-board.

Running through a section of country thickly settled and producing large quantities of grain and lumber, with not an acre of waste land to be found anywhere in proximity to the road, its local traffic alone will amply secure the cost of building.

The issue of bonds is limited to $20,000 per mile, and we offer only $600,000 on the thirty miles of road already completed and in successful operation.

When desired, the bonds will be registered with the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company.

In view of the above facts, we recommend these Bonds on account of their ABSOLUTE SAFETY, and regard them as, in every way, a choice security. Pamphlets will be furnished on application.

PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR DIMENSION STONE REQUIRED IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT BUILDING AT ST. LOUIS, MO.

OFFICE OF SUPERVISING ARCHITECT,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21, 1872.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 12 o'clock M. of the 26th day of October, 1872, for furnishing and delivering at the site of the proposed Government building at St. Louis, Mo., all of the dimension required for the exterior of the building.

The species of stone from which a selection will be made will be confined to granite, marble and sandstones, and the qualities especially insisted upon will be uniformity of color and texture, durability, and the capacity for working under the chisel or hammer.

A sample block, 12x12x12 inches, showing on each face a different kind of cutting, and on one the natural fracture of the stone must be submitted with each bid.

No stone that has not been tested by actual use as cut stone in buildings for at least ten years will be considered, and absolute proof that it has been so used for that period must be furnished.

The stone must further have a good grain and be free from all discoloring substances, and the quarry from which it is procured must be fully opened and capable of furnishing the quality and quantity desired within one year.

About 400,000 cubic feet, more or less, will be required, the actual average of the stones cannot now be given, but will approximate forty feet, the largest stone containing about 200 cubic feet.

The stone will be ordered on a schedule of net sizes, in order that the contractor may make proper allowances for cutting in the quarrying, and on this schedule payment will be made, allowing an addition of one inch to each face on granite and marble stock and of one-half inch to each cut face of sandstone.

Bidders will state how soon they can commence delivering the stone and the amount per week they can deliver; the stone and the amount per week they can deliver. They will also state the average and maximum size of the stones that can be obtained from their quarry.

No bids will be received except from the owners or lessees of the quarries from which the stone is proposed to be furnished, and a certificate from the Recorder of the County in which the quarry is situated that the bidder is the owner or lessee of the quarry must accompany the bid.

All proposals must be made on and in full accordance with the printed forms to be obtained on application at this office or from the Superintendent, Mr. Thomas Walsh, St. Louis, Mo., and must be accompanied by a penal bond in the sum of fifty thousand dollars, ($50,000) that the bidder will accept and perform the contract if awarded to him, and give bond therefor in the penal sum of one hundred thousand dollars, ($100,000) and a valid and binding lease of the quarry to the Government as security for the faithful performance of the contract, the lease to take effect upon the failure of the contractor to comply with the terms of the contract, said lease to authorize the Government to take full possession of the quarry and work it at the expense of the contractor in case of default.

The Department reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to divide the contract and use two or more kinds of stone.

Proposals must be inclosed in a sealed envelope, indorsed, "Proposals for dimension stone for the new Government building, St. Louis, Mo.," and addressed to A. B. MULLETT, Supervising Architect.

QUARTERMASTER-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 1, 1872.

Proposals are invited for marking the graves in the National Cemeteries, as required by law, to be addressed to the Quartermaster-General, Washington, D. C.

Proposals should state the price for each head-stone, properly inscribed and set at the head of the grave in each National Military Cemetery.

Bids may be for the whole work of all the cemeteries, or for that of several cemeteries in a district, or for a single cemetery.

The bonds required will be, in amount, twenty (20) per cent. of the whole amount of each contract.

All proposals received by the Quartermaster-General will be opened on the 12th day of October, 1872, at noon, at the office of the Quartermaster-General, Washington, D. C., in presence of bidders, and contracts will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidders as soon as a comparison of the samples and prices can be completed, provided the samples are deemed suitable by the Secretary of War.

All samples should be distinctly marked in order to prevent mistakes.

Lists of the cemeteries, with the number of graves in each, together with full information as to conditions, requirements, &c., will be furnished on application in writing to the Quartermaster-General, Washington, D. C.

Progress of Political Events in the Keystone State.

Last Week of the Campaign—Failure of the Greeleyites to Create a Furor—The Labor Reform Movement—Democratic Temperance.

From Our Special Correspondent.

WILLIAMSPORT, Penn., Monday, Sept. 30, 1872.

The last week of the campaign in Pennsylvania, which, as many think, is to decide the Presidential contest, is now opening, and arrangements have been made for holding mass-meetings of both parties, almost daily, in every county and nearly every town in the State. From what I have seen of these mass meetings, and I have attended scores of them, I am convinced that, for the remainder of the campaign, they will be well-nigh useless as affecting the result on election day, and that the time between now and Oct. 8 would be far more profitably spent if each individual Republican would go quietly, but energetically, to work in his own locality and make a thorough canvass of the electors and see that every voter is brought to the polls. The people of Pennsylvania have already made up their minds on all the issues that are open to discussion in the State election—they had done this more than a week ago—and all the talk of all the orators in Christendom for the next six days will not change a dozen votes. One sees evidence of this on every hand, but it was particularly noticeable last week, when the Democrats and Liberal Republicans made special efforts to impress public sentiment and get up a furor for their State ticket all through this region, but utterly and most miserably failed. They imported their heaviest guns—even going to the expense of $250 a night for Carl Schurz. They had old Tipton, of Nebraska; Gov. Walker, of Virginia; Aleck McClure, Kilpatrick, and the great Stephen J. Meany, of New-York, besides divers other spouters known to fame and infamy, and tried their best to set the country in a blaze. Then came the great Chappaquack show with Dr. Greeley himself at the head, who scattered his oratorial "pills" at all the way stations, and tried to convince the people that they were full of hate and ought to be "reconciled"—to the Greeley ticket. The whole programme proved ineffective, and, in counting up their gains, the coalition found they had less votes than they had before. Finally, to wind up their week's work, they brought out their last and biggest card—"Andy" Curtin. They had held him in reserve for a month, expecting at the last moment to produce a sensation that would carry Buckalew into the Gubernatorial chair with a rush. The "reception of Andy Curtin at his old home" was to settle the State and Presidential contest beyond peradventure. Well, "Andy" Curtin had his reception and made his speech, and what is the result? Through the kindness of Railway Superintendent Frank Thomson, who kept a freight-train in waiting two hours, I was enabled, by riding all night, to see that reception and hear that speech. To use the words of a leading citizen of Bellefonte, who used to be a stanch friend and next-door neighbor of Gov. Curtin, "it was the most mortifying spectacle ever witnessed in Pennsylvania." I speak the literal truth when I say that there were not five Republicans in the village of Bellefonte, which numbers three thousand inhabitants, and polls a Republican majority of nearly one hundred, who had any lot or part in this reception. It was entirely the work of Democrats—mostly copperhead Democrats—who came in from a distance of twenty-five miles to join in "welcoming home" a man on whose head they have not ceased to shower curses for the last ten years.

The Labor Reform Element and How it Will Affect the State Election—A Democratic Temperance Dodge—The Exposure of the Yerkes Forgery.

From Our Special Correspondent.

WILLIAMSPORT, Penn., Tuesday, Oct. 1, 1872.

There is one element of the canvass in this State, very little recognized by politicians, and scarcely every mentioned by correspondents, which I am convinced will very materially affect, if it does not absolutely decide, the State election in October. I allude to the Labor Reform ticket, previously noticed in my letter from Pottsville. It has been hoped and confidently believed by the Democrats that Schell, the Labor Reform candidate for Governor, would withdraw from the field before election day, in which case it was expected that three-fourths, at least, of his supporters would cast their votes for Buckalew. But he has not yet withdrawn, and I am assured positively by the leaders of the Labor Reform Party that he will not. The members of this party are very numerous in the Counties of Schuylkill, Carbon, Luzerne, Montour, Northumberland, Lycoming, Clinton and other counties in the northern and eastern section of the State. While they differ among themselves as to the expediency of running a separate ticket at the present election, yet a large share of them are in favor of it, and will stick to the candidate nominated, if he remains in the field. The Miners' Benevolent Association, a secret organization, with a very large membership in the coal and mining regions, will poll a heavy vote for the Labor Reform candidate in any event. A prominent leader of the Labor Reformers, Mr. Birmingham, of this city, estimates the vote for Schell in the coal and mining districts at not less than 10,000. Eight out of ten of these votes, he says, will be cast by men who have always heretofore voted the Democratic ticket. Here, then, will be a loss of 6,000 votes for Buckalew, which will more than make up for all the Greeley Republicans in the north-eastern section of the State, including whatever defection there may be from Hartranft among the Grant Republicans. As stated in a previous letter, there is a very cordial feeling existing between the Republicans and Labor Reformers of Schuylkill, Carbon and Luzene Counties, who have fraternized on a ticket for local and county officers, so that if Schell should be induced to withdraw at the last moment, (which is not at all likely,) it is believed that at least an equal share of his supporters will cast their votes for Hartranft. It is not improbable, therefore, that this Labor Reform Party, which is so generally ignored by the politicians, both in and out of Pennsylvania, will hold the balance of power, and decide the result on Tuesday next.

There is also a Temperance ticket in the field here, both State and National—James Black being the candidate for President and Simeon B. Chase for Governor. It is run entirely in the interest of the Democratic Party, and its sole organ, the Pennsylvania Temperance Vindicator, published at Harrisburgh, is supported mainly by contributions from the Democratic State Committee. If it were able to poll any votes, they would come, of course, mainly from the Republicans—for a Temperance Democrat is as hard to find as a Greeley Republican—but it will not. Last year the temperance men had their candidate in the field, and boasted he would get 25,000 votes. He got about three thousand. This year, owing to the party issues at stake, the Temperance ticket would not get a thousand votes even if it had been placed in nomination from honest motives, but being, as everybody knows, simply a Democratic device to draw Republican votes from Hartranft, it will not probably poll five hundred.

The Democrats are in a furore of rage here at the pardon of Yerkes by Gov. Geary. The complete refutation that Yerkes furnishes of their chief slander against Gen. Hartranft has taken them all aback. As long as they could keep Yerkes in prison, with his mouth sealed, they could repeat their villainous lies, backed up by forgery, with impunity; but now that the truth has come out and their forgeries are exposed, they are getting desperate. Anticipating their certain defeat on Tuesday next, they are now engaged in trumping up an excuse for it in foolish talk about droves of negroes being imported into the State to vote the Republican ticket. Even Gov. Curtin was not above giving currency to this silly bosh in his speech at Bellefonte, on Saturday evening. Any man who is not an idiot knows that such a thing would be practically impossible; but the Democratic Party has been so long accustomed to ascribe their misfortunes to the "d—d nigger" that they would feel lost if they couldn't hold him responsible in this election.

Gov. Seymour, of New-York, and Gov. Parker, of New-Jersey, are advertised to address a few words of comfort to the desponding Democrats of this city to-morrow night. Williamsport usually gives a Republican majority of three hundred or over, and this year it will not be less than four hundred and fifty. The county, (Lycoming,) with a population of about fifty thousand, gave a Democratic majority last year of 420, and at the last Gubernatorial election in 1869 a majority of 534. Buckalew will be lucky if he gets 400 majority next Tuesday.

BASE-BALL.

Mutual vs. Baltimore—A Drawn Game of Ten Innings—Score, 6 to 6.

Another ten-inning game, and undecided at that, resulted from the meeting between the Mutuals and Baltimores on the Union Ground yesterday, this making the third occasion on which these nines have been unable to decide the question of superiority in the allotted number of innings. In the first inning of yesterday's game the Mutuals scored three runs, after two men had been put out, errors being made by Mills and Pike. The next five innings were stubbornly contested, the Mutuals failing to score, while the Baltimores earned two runs. Each scored two in the seventh, and the Mutuals, after having three men left on bases in the eighth, added a single in the ninth. The score was now 6 to 4, and it was any odds on the Mutuals. The first Baltimore striker went out, but three good hits secured the runs necessary for a tie. The Mutuals returned to the bat and were whitewashed, and a similar fate befell the three Baltimore strikers, all going out on foul hits to Hicks. Darkness had now set in, and the umpire declared the game drawn. Altogether the contest was one of the best contested ever witnessed. All the players fielded well, and several remarkable catches were made, McMullin, Eggler and Hall excelling in this respect.

Arnold & Constable's Magnificent Dry-Goods Palace.

Arnold & Constable's dry-goods emporium, corner of Broadway and Nineteenth-street, which has been so long well known as a mart of choicest wares by the wealthy people of this City, appeared in a new dress yesterday. The store was built in 1869, and was formerly five stories high. It was and still remains the retail establishment of this firm, which has a receiving and wholesale place of business in Canal-street. A short time ago, however, it became evident to the proprietors that the house must be enlarged, and they added fifty feet to the rear or Fifth-avenue side, and erected two stories, making it now seven stories high. The ground floor has an area of 22,000 square feet, and the establishment consists of seven stories and large basement. In the latter are the storage department, the receiving and delivery branches, which merit a word of explanation. Here men are engaged in wrapping up, directing and finally delivering the goods which are sold to customers on the floors above. Besides these two in the basement, are the lunch, hat and cloak rooms for the employes, oil-cloth, cutting and engineer's departments. On the ground or first floor, dry-goods of every description nearly are sold by clerks, and cash-boys in large numbers flit hither and thither, from counter to counting-house, continually. On the next or second floor are displayed ladies' shawls, cloaks, suits in mourning and variety, at all prices. Indian cashmeres can be had for the modest sum of $1,000 and $2,500. Of course, as Mr. Constable informed a number of his visitors yesterday, "We have less expensive articles. You can get a shawl for $5, if you want it." However, everything in this line, cheap or expensive, is for sale on this second floor, where are also boudoirs and ladies' elegant withdrawing-rooms. None but the fair here attend the fair. The saleswomen are numerous and lady-like. Another flight of stairs up, or if one should prefer the easy use of an elevator, another elevation bring us to the retail carpet and upholstery department. Axminster, Brussels, Turkish, and all other species of carpet can be purchased at their market value. Still higher, on the fourth story, carpets are sold at wholesale, and the next ascent brings the visitor into the factory and fitting room. Here a host of girls are at work braiding and sewing by machines, which are kept in motion by an eight horse-power engine on the floor above. The operators are of every age and size, and were actively engaged yesterday, as they will be, it is said, daily hereafter. The sixth and seventh floors are devoted to the preparation and storage of carpets. Each floor has its hose, ax, and iron bars connecting with the two tanks on the top floor, each of which holds 3,500 gallons of water. Hose is on the roof, too, and connects with the pumps. There are three elevators in the building, two for passengers up and down stairs—one for lowering and hoisting freight.

Yesterday, quite a number of ladies and gentlemen were invited to go over their store by the proprietors, who accompanied them in their tour of inspection, and explained all the grandeur and details of the business. Mr. Constable said that each floor was 82.06x240 feet, with an average height of 15 feet. The area of the whole was 200,000 square feet. After a lengthy examination of the premises and stock, the host and guests partook of a liberal luncheon in the basement. The regular Fall season opens today, with a large and well-assorted stock, and 1,000 people to dispose of it.

Paul Falk Discharged.

The examination in the case of Paul Falk, keeper of the Tivoli Garden, Nos. 18 and 20 St. Mark's-place, charged with violating the Excise law, took place before Justice Shandley, at Essex Market, yesterday. Mr. Darwin E. Hill, of No. 22 Seventh-street, the complainant, swore that on Sunday evening he drank Rhine wine and champagne in Falk's place. He was subjected to a severe cross-examination by Mr. W. F. Howe, Falk's counsel, and utterly broke down. It became painfully evident that Mr. Hill did not know what Rhine wine was, and could not swear that the liquid he drank was not German cider, as Falk contends it was. Counsel for the prisoner characterized the prosecution as a conspiracy gotten up by Rev. Mr. Parker and some members of the Seventh-street Methodist Church, to drive Mr. Falk out of business. Justice Shandley dismissed the complaint, saying that it could not stand on Mr. Hill's evidence. Falk announces that he will have Mr. Hill arrested today on a charge of false imprisonment.

The meeting of the Committee will be resumed to-morrow evening, when they will probably render their decision.

S., convened at Melrose last evening, for the purpose of making an informal investigation in regard to the recent disturbance among the members of Company A, Capt. Sauvan, and Company G, Capt. Campbell, on board of a train of the Harlem Railroad. Capt. Campbell stated that no ill-feeling existed between the two companies as represented; that the most friendly relations prevailed not only betwixt himself and Capt. Sauvan, but also among the members themselves; that only one pane of glass and one lamp were broken on the occasion referred to; that one of the members carrying his gun a little too high on entering a car accidentally struck a lamp and broke it; that young Brinckman was somewhat under the influence of liquor and broke the window with his gun-stock.

Considerable surprise was manifested by the investigating officers that neither the Harlem Railroad Company nor any one else had come forward to make formal complaint against any one connected with either company; but as some of the information elicited showed great irregularity in regard to the organization of the regiment, a military Court of Inquiry will be instituted to investigate all matters connected with the regiment.

A GOOD MEMORY depends on several conditions: First, the necessary faculties; second, a mind not clouded or clogged by dissipated habits. Bad whisky and bad tobacco, when taken into the human system, first excite and then blunt the senses, impair the memory, the sight, hearing, and injure the mind. So also a diseased condition of the body injures the memory. A careful Phrenological Chart will disclose the real state of things, and indicate the way by which one's memory may be improved. Examinations daily at No. 389 Broadway.
